I'm a little slow in responding to this but I have a McCloskey ancestor with Green Island connections. My grandmother was Margaret O'Neil nee Wallingford. She grew up in Green Island. Her parents were Edward Wallingford and Eliza Hooley. Edward's parents were Nicholas Wallingford and Margaret McCloskey. Originally, Nicholas and Margaret lived in Mariaville but they moved to Green Island in the late 1870ies. Margaret lived in Green Island for awhile after her husband's death. When Cardinal McCloskey HS was opened in Albany in the 1950ies my great uncle, Dr. Art Wallingford was invited to speak we are told because of his McCloskey connections. Cardinal McCloskey was the bishop in Albany from I think the late 1840ies until the late 1860ies and we have some reason to think that Margaret was his relative, perhaps his sister.

I just received a transcript of the death certificate for my ancestor, Rosanna DEVLIN, who was b. Ireland 1811 and died in Green Island on March 12, 1891. It gives her father's name as John McClosky (MC CLOSKEY). I believe someone on the list had this surname too. Please contact me if there is a connection.

Thanks,
Donna

David,

Thank you for your posting. What you shared makes a lot of sense to me, because my mother's parents were great friends of the Wallingford's. That might be because they were related! I have pictures of the Wallingford's from years ago, when Art, Jr., was a boy. His parents had a camp that my grandparents and my mom used to visit. I didn't know about the possible Cardinal McCloskey connection--that is interesting, too!

Do you have approximate dates? My Rose Ann McCloskey, who married Bernard Devlin, was b. Ireland in 1811 and d. 1891 in G.I. Her father's name was John McCloskey. Let's keep in touch on this.

Thanks again,

Donna

Donna,

That's very interesting. I have to check my records about some dates and ages but Edward Wallingford, Art, Sr.'s dad, was born in 1860 when Nicholas and Margaret Wallingford lived in Mariaville (near Duaneburgh). Margaret was originally a McCloskey but she was married to a McKeon before she married Edward. I have a naturalization record for a McCloskey (it may have been John). I'll look at that and get back in touch with you. Was the camp you referred to at Saratoga or in Mariaville? Also, there's a great little book by Reginald Byron called I think "The Irish in America". It's about Albany. There is a great deal in there about Cardinal McCloskey's days in Albany. As a result of then Bishop McCloskey's efforts, Albany became one of the favorite destinations of Irish immigrants. Bishop McCloskey created many institutions in Albany that were ahead of their time in tending to the needs of Irish immigrants. David

Have been watching this line. Is the book by Reginald Byron available? I am researching the Dempsey family from Albany.

James Dempsey worked for the United Traction Company for 67 years and was the operator to run last horse drawn car and the last mechanical trolley.

I think I found through Alibris on-line. It is based upon interviews with 500 Irish Americans in Albany but there is an introduction that I found very interesting. As I recall, those interviewed do not disclose their surnames. It has a bibliography that is useful.

I have just received notification from RootsWeb that their LISTS5 server is off line for AT LEAST the next couple of days or more.

What this means for TIGS: Because our list is unfortunately one of those on this particular server, no messages can be posted or received. I wanted to let you know in case you notice no activity from TIGS.

I will keep you posted. I have sent this individually to our "local" members, as we all have each other's addresses anyway, and we are the ones who post most often. If I have omitted anyone on the list that posts frequently, please feel free to forward this message to them.

Thanks,
Donna

I copied & pasted below, what is posted on RootsWeb help page, in regard to our server for TIGS still being down:

Mail Lists:
2004-11-12

All visitors please read this message. This really does mean YOU!

One of our mailing list servers (LISTS5) is partaking in conniptions of a disruptive nature. This server is off-line for maintenance.

Updated information:

Friday - no further information to hand

The initial problem has been identified and resolved, however, the initial problem caused subsequent problems to digests and the overall fix is going to take a little longer to achieve. Trust us that we don't like the beast being off-line and we are endeavouring to get it back as soon as we can.

The current estimate of the time that the server will be off-line is another day or two.

At this time, please do not contact the HelpDesk if you are not receiving email. We do mean this and the continuing number of messages asking this exact question is staggering.

If you are not receiving the email that you expect to receive, odds-on it is due to the server being off-line. If you wish to check your list subscriptions, please visit the normal place Password Central.

No Carol the meeting was last night. The change was made at the meeting last month and was in the minutes. Unfortunately with the list down there was no on-going communication but the minutes were posted last week to the website and the information was put up on the web site. There were only 6 of us at the meeting, I will get the minutes done to bring everyone up to speed.

Yes, of course!!!! We usually post an agenda to the list in advance, and the minutes/meeting notice on our website (see bottom of Email for address). We would LOVE to have you join us! Watch the list for notice of the next meeting. I did not make the one last week; I believe we are not having a "business" meeting in Dec.?? Can someone who was there please clarify?

Hello all:

The original idea came from Lizette and I offered to host a pot-luck dinner Christmas party/meeting at my home the evening of December 15th at 6:30 PM.

I will post directions to my home to the list as the date approaches. We will probably have a short meeting there as we need co-chairs for the January/February meetings and we need to approve the charter that was worked out by those of us who attended Wednesday night's meeting.

I will make a large lasagna and have soda, tea and coffee. Please feel free to BYOB if you prefer and let me know if you are planning to contribute to the meal so, heaven forbid, we don't end up with 8 desserts!

Greetings

My name is Marilyn Mahoney and I was raised in Troy and currently live near Boston. Surnames I am researching include: Denny, Shinners, Darrigan, Moran, Gallagher and Ryan. (O'Mara, Fogarty, Delehanty, McGovern) by marriage.

Most of my information at present involves research regarding the Denny family. 1st generation - Dermot Denny and Catherine Drew resided in Lismoyan, Tipperary, Ireland. They had seven children all of whom immigrated to the US between 1850 and 1862 and resided in Troy.

Second generation -

1. Margaret Denny married Thomas Fogarty (five children - Margaret, Jeremiah, James, John and Mary) 2. John Denny married Mary (?) (five children - Catherine, James, Jeremiah, Walter, John) John died before 1880 but Mary lived until 1910 3. James Denny married Catherine Shinners, May 1857, at St. Peter's Church in Troy. (six children - Catherine, Margaret, William, Jeremiah, William H. and John H.) 4. Thomas Denny married Margaret Cahill (six children - John, Jeremiah, James, Walter, John J. and William) 5. Judith (Johanna) Denny married Edmund Delahunty (Delehanty) (seven children - Catherine, Margaret, Mary, William, Johannah, Jeremiah and Ellen) 6. Mary Denny remained single 7. Walter Denny married Mary Cummins (?Cummings) (two children - Jeremiah and John)

James Denny's son Jeremiah married Alice Darrigan at Saint Patrick's Church in 1892. Alice was the daughter of John Darrigan (Dargan) and Bridget Moran.

I am currently waiting for information from Ireland regarding both John Darrigan and Catherine Shinners.

Looking forward to hearing from some of you.

Thank you.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

(Excerpted from an E-mail from NEHGS. Permission granted)

The New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) is offering free access to its New England Historical and Genealogical Register database on NewEnglandAncestors.org from Thursday, November 25, through Sunday, November 28, 2004.

Published quarterly since 1847, The New England Historical and Genealogical Register is the flagship journal of American genealogy and the oldest journal in the field. The online database includes issues from 1847 to 1994. The Register has featured articles on a wide variety of topics since its inception, including vital records, church records, tax records, land and probate records, cemetery transcriptions, obituaries, and historical essays.

Authoritative compiled genealogies have been the centerpiece of the Register for more than 150 years. Thousands of New England families have been treated in the pages of the journal and many more are referenced in incidental ways throughout. The articles in the Register range from short pieces correcting errors in print or solving unusual problems to larger treatments that reveal family origins or present multiple generations of a family.

Details on how to obtain free access to the Register will be available beginning on Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 25, on the home page of the NEHGS website, www.NewEnglandAncestors.org.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

I found a grave card from a plot at St. Mary's that My dad's illusive Great Grandfather John Hannon bought.

We still can't find him. But in this lot, his grandchildren and daughter are buried. I believe one of the entries is a mistake and is actually John's Wife Bridget .

So if anyone has access to death records about 8/25/1907 - 8/26/1907 can look up a Bridget Hannon or a Bridget Jennings, I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you kindly

Hi David,

I've been reading a book I got via interlibrary loan that has quite a bit on Cardinal McCloskey, including a couple of portraits. It's called: "Canals and Crossroads: A Sesquicentennial History of the Albany Diocese" by Sally Light, c. 1997 by Albany Catholic Press. Chapter 3 is basically all about Cardinal McCloskey. Quite a nice book with great photos.

Hi everyone,
Let's do a roll call. We have a lot of new members and may make some connections.

In the subject line, put "Roll Call" followed by the surnames you are searching for in the Troy area. (For example, my subject line will read "ROLL CALL: BUTLER, DEVLIN, DRISCOLL, MCCLOSKEY, SHEA). In the text of the Email, add whatever details you'd like on those surnames--timeframes, etc.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Greetings All,

I have tracked my Irish ancestry to Troy in the early 1840s. My GGgrandmother was Bridget O'neill. She married an unk Quinn and a son was born to them, Peter Quinn in Feb 1844 at the Nail Factory. Bridget's husband likely died and she married my GGgrandfather, Francis Kane in NYC in July, 1847. I have no knowledge of whether or not Bridget's family, the O'neills, lived in Troy and that is how she met Quinn or if it was just she and her husband in Troy.

Thanks and Best Regards,

Tom Schenk

> Hi everyone,
> Let's do a roll call. We have a lot of new members and may make some connections.
>
> In the subject line, put "Roll Call" followed by the surnames you are searching for in the Troy area. (For example, my subject line will read "ROLL CALL: BUTLER, DEVLIN, DRISCOLL, MCCLOSKEY, SHEA). In the text of the Email, add whatever details you'd like on those surnames--timeframes, etc.
