Alethea,

Not sure if this helps you but I have an Alice McClean in my family who married my Uncle John F. Cody on February 12, 1912. In 1930 they lived on third Street

Hi Alethea,

Swift Company is listed at 2788 Sixth Avenue the same address as the one listed for George.

There's no Lillie Connolly or McLean listed.

Hope this helps.

Greetings, Bill and Cathy,

In regard to your last message, the Troy Police Department Index, compiled by Joan Howe... how can I access this?? My uncle, John Callahan was a Troy policeman in the thirties, forties, and fifties, ending his career as a Sgt. and having something to do with the radio aspect of the department. I am hoping that if I could see some records it would shed some light on my maternal grandfather, John Callahan of Troy and before that, Green Island..

Thanks for any help. Mimi Nicotina nicotinv#albany.net

As these records could be copied, we were able to use volunteers from outside the Troy area. Photocopied pages were mailed to the volunteers for data entry. There were 16 local area volunteers and nine out-of state volunteers from Utah, North Carolina, Michigan, Maryland, California, Massachusetts and Iowa who worked on the project.

In addition to name and date of death, this data base will record occupation and/or employer, street address, name of widow, etc. Again, because of the availability of the source documents, this project can be worked on only by local people who have access to a city directory in the area libraries.

To the List,

I have just read Gerard Moran's book, Sending Out Ireland's Poor / Assisted Emigration to North America in the Nineteenth Century.

In it is this sentence, which may be helpful to some researchers:

"Many of the Audrey de Vere emigrants from Co. Limerick travelled to Canada and settled in Troy in New York state." (p. 120)

The statement is referenced: Report from the select committee of the House of Lords on colonization from Ireland, p. 537, q. 4862.

De Vere is mentioned several other times in the book, but only in a general way. Nowhere does Moran explain where de Vere's Limerick estates were located.

The book does break new ground though in providing evidence that the number of emigrants "assisted" out of Ireland was higher than previously thought. Moran estimates it to be about 300,000 people, not including those helped by family and friends.

I believe that the barony of Kilconnel, Galway, owned by Trench Family, also helped families out of IRE. Actually--so far I've found few Galway descendants researching roots in Troy so far. That may be because I'm new at doing this kind of research, but I don't believe Galway emigrants came in large numbers to Troy. Thanks for the insight. Alethea Connolly

FYI, Quinnipiac University in Hampden, CT, will hold a day-long conference about The Great Hunger on Saturday, Sept. 17. Scheduled are speakers from the U.S., Canada, and Ireland. Irish scholar and author Dr. Kevin Whelan of Dublin will talk at the end of the day during the plenary session. His topic is "The Killing Snows: The Cultural Impact of the Irish Famine."

Among the speakers will be Mary Fitzgerald-Hoyt of Siena College. Her topic is "The Hunger Artists: The Potato Famine in William Trevor's The News from Ireland and Nuala O'Faolain's My Dream of You."

Harvey Strum of Sage College of Albany will comment on the talks in a panel titled The Famine and the United States.

For more information, go to

<http://www.thegreathunger.org/conference/hungerconference.html>

Since it's not too far from Albany and Troy, some Listees may have an interest. The web site points out that while registration will stay open until the day of the event, attendance is limited to 200 people. In addition, Quinnipiac's great collection of famine art will be displayed.

David,

You may be right. Assisted emigrants, in particular, often were taken to Canada because it cost less. I think there were multiple paths from many points in Eastern Canada down to New England and New York. In his book, for instance, Moran points out that assisted emigrants to St. John in New Brunswick frequently traveled down to Maine and from there many went on to Vermont which had much railroad construction underway in the mid and late 1840s. Rutland became a railroad hub at that time and became tied to Troy and Albany because of the rail lines.

Thanks Mary Lee. Any little bit helps for those of us who would love to know the counties from which our Troy ancestors came. I believe that there was a similar path from Waterford to Newfoundland and then to Albany. David

To the List,

I have just read Gerard Moran's book, Sending Out Ireland's Poor / Assisted Emigration to North America in the Nineteenth Century.

In it is this sentence, which may be helpful to some researchers:

"Many of the Audrey de Vere emigrants from Co. Limerick travelled to Canada and settled in Troy in New York state." (p. 120)

The statement is referenced: Report from the select committee of the House of Lords on colonization from Ireland, p. 537, q. 4862.

De Vere is mentioned several other times in the book, but only in a general way. Nowhere does Moran explain where de Vere's Limerick estates were located.

The book does break new ground though in providing evidence that the number of emigrants "assisted" out of Ireland was higher than previously thought. Moran estimates it to be about 300,000 people, not including those helped by family and friends.

Anyone researching GRATTON/GRATTAN out of Watervliet. They immigrated to West Troy from County Leitrim in 1847. There is an association with my Sweeney family of South Troy. Alot of godparents to my Sweeney's in St Joseph's parish in South Troy. Have compiled some information on John and Mary Gratton and their children, Peter,Patrick,Bridget,Bartholomew,Lawrence.

Bonjour,

To add to Marylyn's message, I would submit that people first landed in Canada because the cost of the trip from Ireland or the British Isles was cheaper, than to an American destination.

You have his journal of such a trip in 1844/45??!! Has anyone transcribed it? It sounds like an invaluable record!

I wouldn't be at all surprised if they produce a book from the conference papers. They did so from their earlier Great Hunger conference several years ago.

Wish it were a travel journal. No---They are records of births, deaths, marriages, covering family who lived in Woodlawn, Galway and then those born,married in Troy, NY by Martin Connolly. They are his brother and sisters, and his wife, children and friends who became sponsors. (1847-80's) The record book was then carried on by other family members sporadically. The original is in the hands of my cousin's who did some early genealogy work, but all of us have copies. Some notations have to do with Martin's getting ready for naturalization, and apparently learning to write by reading the newspaper and copying out historical events. A tonic recipe is quite interesting. Alethea

Would you be able to list the surnames that are in the book? It might give us a clue if family was from Woodlawn, Galway. Thanks.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Thanks for the welcome! I'm not sure this went through before so here goes (just in case):

I am looking for anyone who is researching the name Judge in Troy. My great-grandfather's two brothers came to Troy from Cloghan, Offaly, Ireland. John Judge came to Troy in the late 1860s. I believe that I found John and his wife, Julia Nailor/Naylor on the 1870 census. In c1871, brother Daniel came to Troy and I found Daniel on the 1880 census living with John and Julia. Daniel married Maria O'Keefe and died in 1910 in Green Island. Julia died before 1900 and John died between 1920 (on the census) and 1930 (not on the census) - information is he might have died c1926.

John Judge lived on Ida Street for years and was a mason. I do have bits and pieces of other info but thought I would start with this.

There was another brother, Michael - whereabouts unknown. My great grandfather was Peter Judge - he remained in Ireland, though apparently he did go to the States (believe mid 1880s) and went back to the Cloghan area and remained there til he died in 1947.

Any info appreciated - and will share what info I have.

Hello Jayne:

Having worked on the Burden Payroll records, I am very familiar with the name John Judge. I typed it quite a bit.

Take a look at the Burden Payroll Records on the Troy Irish Genealogy Website and see how often his name is listed.

Also in Book I of the payroll records note:

Entry for January 18, 1883 for John Judge "child dead"
Entry for August 30, 1880 for Thomas Judge "child dead"

A Michael Judge is also listed in the records.

Regards,

Bill McGrath

Lizette

I also had a question regarding a Jonathan Shaw, b1781, in Rensselaer County.

I was wondering if you might have any information on a Jonathan Shaw, born 1781 (per census and burial stone, +/- 1 year) born in Rensselaer County (per census information). As of 1830 until the end of his life, he lived in the Town of Russia, Herkimer County, NY. His wife was Margaret Carpenter, b1789, daughter of Warren Carpenter of Stillwater, Saratoga County. Warren Carpenter moved to the Town of Russia by 1810. They were devout Baptists and I am assume Jonathan was as well.

I suspect his Father was Daniel Shaw of Schaghticoke, who was born 1755-1760. However, I have not been able to find any information on this Daniel Shaw.

Any information you might have on Daniel Shaw of Schaghticoke, born 1755-1760, or my Jonathan Shaw would be most appreciated. This Daniel is not the same Daniel Shaw of a similar age who married Creshe Bennet and moved to the Lake George region. My Daniel appears in the 1800 census of Schaghticoke with two sons in the 16-25 age group. This other Daniel was already living in Caldwell at this time and had no sons named Jonathan.

If you do not have any information, please direct me to a professional who might be able to help me.

I appreciate your help.

Respectfully,

Major Rudyard G. Edick

Hello all:

Now that I have the laptop and scanner all ready to go, I will be taking a vacation day from work this Thursday, August 18th, to meet with anyone interested in working on scanning for the upcoming TIGS project transcribing records from the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office. What we hope to do is scan the materials onto the laptop and convert them to pdfs so Bill can email the scans to those interested in helping work on the transcriptions. They should be much easier to read as a pdf because you will be able to zoom in and out and I can enhance the scans in Photoshop to improve their quality. Not to mention it will be a lot easier, quicker and cheaper to email you the materials than it was to mail them.

I will be meeting Bill & Kathy McGrath at the County Clerks Office on Third and Congress Sts. at 10 AM and if you are interested in learning how to use the laptop and scanner please let me know.

Thanks so much.

Does someone have access to a city directory for this time period who can do a lookup to see what schools were running at this time?

Hi Pam:

I'm not exactly sure yet. Bill McGrath has that worked out. I think we are starting with the indexes.

Jeanne,

As it happens, I am committed to babysitting for my three grandsons, who are between camp and school....will be involved all this week....next week, another relative is taking over, so, if anything is going on next week, let me know, and I will try to be there. Mimi

To our local (and visiting) members:

Please check our website if you are interested in attending the August TIGS meeting. For the month of August only, we will NOT be meeting on the third Thursday (which would have been this Thurs.). Instead, we will be meeting next week, on Thurs. August 25. Here is the link to our website for details:

Hi Sheila:

I should think it will only take an hour for training, then we will go ahead and start scanning. So you can leave early if you need to.

Hello everyone:

I think I have managed to convert the entire TIGS website over to the new design. Please take a few minutes and work your way through the site, check the links to your favorite pages and your own materials, and let me know what doesn't work or is missing. I would like to make sure everything is all right before I start adding more materials. I would very much appreciate the extra eyes, I've simply been living with this site for too long now to even see the mistakes anymore.

Thanks so much.

I did try to visit the "Oakwood Cemetery" link and it did not come up..

Thanks for all your hard work. I know how time consuming it all becomes! Please let me know if there is any transcribing you need to help with; if info can be mailed (or e-mailed) to me, I can help!

Hi,

I have just spent the last hour or so going through the entire TIGS website and have to say that it is GREAT! Very professional looking. I am not sure if this is a problem or if it is my computer software but all of the pictures for the Tour of Gardner Earl Memorial Chapel did not appear, only boxes with X in the corner.

Thanks for all the great work on your part to make the site so appealing and easy to navigate.

Kinney's of Troy NY

My Great Grandfather was Thomas L. Kinney of Troy NY. His parents were John and S. Smith. Thomas came to Ironton Ohio met and married Kate Katherine Hannan. She agreed to marry him on the condition that he would not ask her to leave her family and the Ohio River Valley. They opened a business in Coal Grove.

I know that they traveled to visit in NY. He died in the 30's in Ironton.

His obituary listed an Alice Kinney of Troy NY.

Can you help me through this road block?

Sincerely

Stephanie Kinney-Dewey

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

If you haven't looked at the Troy Irish Genealogy Website lately, there is a new, but small, data base of Troy Bank Officers.

Data base covers 299 Officers for the 16 Troy Banks during the period 1801 to 1891.

Information shown is:

Name of Officer
Name of Bank
Position Held
Dates of Services

There are also a few dates of death listed.

Go to:

Troy Irish Genealogy Society website
<http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

And click on PROJECTS and then Names of Bank Officers.

Thanks to the following TIGS members who worked on this data base:

Bob Plunkett - Troy, NY
Cathy McGrath - Clifton Park, NY
Eileen Callahan Werth - Plymouth Meeting, PA Susan Toomy - Georgia Jeanne Keefe - Troy, NY
(File Format)

Regards,

Bill McGrath

Jeanne,

The new design makes the TIGS site among the nicest I've seen. Excellent work. Thank you.

I'll stay as long as I can to help tomorrow, and still get a couple hours in the library. I hope there are no parking restrictions on Thurs. Usually my sister does the driving and parking. I live in the sticks where there is nothing but space, and of course, lots of trees!! So city driving and parking are not my thing. If you know of any restrictions or have any suggestions, just let me know. Thanks!

Sheila:

Usually parking is for two hours downtown, however if you park south of Ferry there aren't usually any restrictions. That's one block south of the county clerks office. Just be sure to read the signs.

Jeanne,

Not meaning to labor the point...we usually park down 2nd St. by a shady park, (same side as the library) can't remember whether or not it's fenced in.

It's a bit of a walk , especially with asthma, so don't want to be "running" back and forth, up and down the street...What about the signs???

Signed,

Country Girl

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

I have not done much research over the summer as I was given access to some old family photos. I am in the process of making copies and attempting to identify some of the people.

If anyone is interested , I could forward a .jpeg of the following photos. You can contact me off list (marilynmahoney@adelphia.net)

The first is a beautiful photo of the females in the 1915 graduating class of St. Patrick's Academy (apparently one of the predecessors to Catholic Central).

The females from the graduation program are identified as Catherine F. Denny, Genevieve C. Luby, Helen E. Nial, Rebecca A. O'Neil and Margaret M. Thompson. I can identify my grandmother but someone will need to identify the rest.

The second photo is of a large group of approximately 60 people. I can identify my great-grandmother Alice Darrigan Denny and I believe I see her sisters and her husband, Jeremiah Denny. The picture appears to have been taken outside the Denny home which was on Fifth Avenue in the 10th ward about 1890-1900.

Would this be an idea for the web-site? Perhaps a different photo could be posted each month to see if we can identify anyone.

Hope this interests someone.

Hi Everyone,

I like to welcome Jim Quigley to the TIGS Mailing List. Below you will find information on his family research.

I was so excited to see your web site!

My family grew up in south troy and I have been trying to piece together our genealogy for some time now. I would love to sign up to provide information for Surnames Quigley and Powers - two names I am directly tied to.

I am desperately also trying to find information on a John Quigley (b. 1863) who married Catherine Powers (b. 1868 d. 1908) in approx. 1892.

I have a good deal of Powers info but I have hit a wall there as well I was able to go back to James Powers (B. 1848 d. ?) who married a Margaret Powers (1846-1916).

Any information you can provide or point me in the right direction would be great.

Hi Marilyn:

What I could do is put up a webpage every month with a different photo that needs identification on it and have the contributors email address on the photo. At the end of the month they could let me know what has been learned so I can share it with the others on the list. I would open this up to anyone who wants to submit a photo of people or a place. I could call it the "Does Anyone Know these People" or "Do you Recognize this place?" page or something like that.

Let me know what you think.

Your web page sounds great!!!! Perhaps some of the older members of the parish could help you.

I am curious if any of my relatives attended this school. Is there an alumni or list of students?

Just wondered whether any of your Connolly's from Galway were married to a Kate Reynolds?
Where are they from in Galway?

Thanks,

Hi Marilyn:

What I could do is put up a webpage every month with a different photo that needs identification on it and have the contributors email address on the photo. At the end of the month they could let me know what has been learned so I can share it with the others on the list. I would open this up to anyone who wants to submit a photo of people or a place. I could call it the "Does Anyone Know these People" or "Do you Recognize this place?" page or something like that.

Let me know what you think.

Jeanne

You just turned a really stinky day in to a great one. THANK YOU SOOOOOO MUCH!!!
I received an earlier email concerning your John and Peter Kinney. I bet there is at least some connection. I'll keep digging.
I found the Iron works information on's Troy web site. Really neat there were Kinneys employed there. The site gave history of Collar factory but didn't locate any lists . Place to look for you.
THANKS AGAIN
Stephanie

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Hello everyone;

At last evening's TIGS meeting the members agreed to make two changes to the website.

The first is that we will be removing names from the Surname Listing unless there is a link to further information or an email address attached to the family surname. If you have submitted names to this list and want to have your email address attached to the name or you have information on a PDF, excel file, family tree chart, photographs or Word document that you would like linked to your Family Surname, please forward it to me ASAP. Otherwise the name will be removed until we have something to link it to.

Secondly ,on September 1st we will initiate a "Do you know who this is or where this " photo page. We will put up a new picture every two weeks if there is a supply. So if you have documents or photos that need identification please send them to me and I will start a file. I will send out a general announcement to the list whenever a new photo is posted and another to tell everyone what we learned before I remove a photo.

Have a lovely weekend!

Hi Everyone,

I like to welcome Marge Farrell from Delmar, NY to the TIGS Mailing List. Below you will find information on her family research. If you have any information about her family, you can email her directly at marge667@earthlink.net

Lizette
List Administrator

I have been researching my father's family. The first to come to America was my great-grandfather, Michael Patrick Farrell, buried in St. Peter's Cemetery in Troy. We have some information, but have hit some stone walls. I hope to get to one of your meetings.

Patrick Hester/Hestor, son of James and Mary Donohoe Hester, was born in Co. Roscommon in January, 1848. At the time of the 1881 census, he was living in Bolton, Lancashire Co. England along with several other Roscommon families who had gone to England for work. Patrick emigrated in 1883 and married Mary Finneran Riley, also from Roscommon and widow of Terence Riley, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Albany. Mary was the mother of Ellen and twins John and Katie. Son Thomas Hester was born in December 1884. >From the City Directories, it appears that Patrick was employed as a gardener for the Menands Nursery for a year or two. From that time on, Patrick was a gardener at the Proudfit Estate. The family lived for many years on Vandenburg Ave. Patrick was killed by a train near the head of 12th Street in Watervliet in early December 1915. Step daughter Ellen Riley married David Morrow. John Riley married Margaret Smith who died in 1905 and then Elizabeth Hooley. John died in 1910. I have no record of Katie Riley's marriage or death and believe she died young. Son Thomas Hester married Anna Elizabeth Slavin at St. Bernard's Church in Cohoes.

I would appreciate any information on the family of John and Frances Broderick Nevins who raised three children in Troy in the 1930s:
John, William and Joan. In particular, I would like to learn about the son John, who was Father Nevins of St. Theresa's Church, Albany in the late 1950s. When Frances died in 1988 he was in Westfield MA.

Hi Geraldine

I hope this helps you, some of dates in the early years may be off, but there always someone who knows the date to the day, so maybe they can give you that after seeing this.

At one time or another almost every church had a parish school, some lasted for years and other closed after only a few years.

At one time there were a few more high Schools St Peter's 1880's to mid 1920's St Michaels 1900's to early 1920's I think St Joseph and St Mary's may have also had a high school as well, but I know the two above did for sure.

Troy NY Schools

St Peter's was the oldest in Troy from about 1840's to 1978 run by the Sister of the St Joseph.

St Mary's (Very Irish) 1850's to 1975 run by the Daughters of Charity of St Vincent depaul's St Joseph's (Mostly Irish) 1960's to mid 1985 or 86 St Paul the Apostle (mostly Irish) 1870's to 1977 run by the Sister of Mercy St Lawrence (German) 1870's to 1961 run by the Sister of St Joseph St Jean the Baptist (French) 1850's to 1935 run by the Sisters of Ste Jean Baptiste and Sisters of St Joseph in the later years.

St Augustine (American) 1860's to present one of the oldest Catholic schools running run by the Sisters of St Joseph St Patrick (Irish) 1870 to 2003 run by the Sisters of St Joseph Sacred Heart (American) 1920's to present run by the Sisters of St Joseph St Michael the Archangel (Irish) 1890's to mid 1930's run by the Sisters of St Joseph Holy Trinity (Polish) about 1910 to 1940's run by the Sisters of the Resurrection Our Lady of Victory (American) 1950's to date was Run by the Sisters of Mercy Catholic Central High School 1921 to present run by Sisters of St Joseph, Mercy's, Presentation's of BVM, and a Spanish order called Mercedarian Missionaries

Good Luck

Most likely St Augustine's, I have never seen school records available in all my years of research except for the private schools like Emma Willard. You might try contacting St Augustine's Church or the Albany Catholic Diocese and see if there are any records available.

Geraldine, if you go to this website you will get information about St. Augustine's school. I am an alumni but I don't know what early records are available if any. My mother also was an alumnae graduating in the mid 20's. Perhaps St. Patrick's could also be part of your history. St.

Peter's as well but that's pretty far removed from the "Burgh". All those churches date back to the mid 19th century. Good Luck.

Catholic Central High School had both Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondolet and Sisters of Mercy teaching when I attended.

I believe that St. Joseph's in South Troy did have a high school at one time and also St. Peter's. Perhaps the parishes dropped the high schools when CCHS opened.

Hi,

I graduated from St. Joseph's in 1958. They did not have a high school then and from the day I started there they had no high school.
