I bet this is the same program I am going to in June 20th up near Portland, Oregon. Here's the program:

Presenters: Fintan Mullan & Dr. Brian Trainor from the Ulster Historical Foundation of Belfast, speaking about Irish, Scots-Irish History and Estate Records.

Five Parts:

1. Broad overview of Scots-Irish and Irish research, benefiting beginners and seasoned genealogists. By Fintan Mullan Presentation is practical, wide ranging, factual and informative, using attractive visual aids and will explore issues such as land divisions, the major collections of records and how to access them.
2. Irish and Scots-Irish Research, 'Not always at the bottom of the pile', by Dr. Brian Trainor. Presentation considers the range of sources available for Irish and Scots-Irish genealogical research and debunks the myth that Irish research is a waste of time because of the destruction of certain records.
3. Gravestone inscriptions by Fintan Mullan Using UHF's own History from Headstones website as a basic tool, this presentation will attempt to demonstrate the usefulness of gravestone inscriptions to research and how the headstones of the Irish around the world can be linked.
4. Emigration from Ulster to North America in the 18th Century by Brian Trainor. The story of the Scots-Irish and their experiences in Ireland and the New World are discussed in this presentation. Using a range of documentary evidence, this presentation will touch upon, the causes for migration, push and pull factors, the patterns of migration, the estimated size of the exodus and its implications for the development of American colonial society.
5. Landed Estate Records by Brian Trainor. This talk will identify those estates records of most use to genealogists, such as leases, rentals and maps, as well as considering the significance of landed estates in Ulster.

The program is timed from 9am to 9pm. A full day. I will be going to a wine reception for the presenters the night before so it will be exciting to meet them on a one to one basis. You will probably get to check out the presentations before it gets to the Left coast so I'll be waiting for your opinions.

Lois,

You have not been dropped from the list. Bette's emails never made it to the list. Rootsweb does not allow attachments etc to be posted to the list. I received a few messages from Rootsweb that said there were some delivery errors. That could have been it.

And no apology necessary Bette. If you want to post a pic, you need to email it to Jeanne. She will put it on her list to post and get it on the website when she can. I know there is a small but growing list of pictures to post.

Regards,
Lizette

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

I am happy to relate that the transcription project for this census has been progressing and I am currently getting the 1st ward online. It is a gradual process to get the pages formatted and connected online and I hope in the next couple of days to get the whole ward online. It includes 3958 individuals, living in 465 dwellings and 849 families.

The people to thank for giving their time to this project are the following transcribers: Kay Brearton, Lynn Grice, Marie McConky, Bev DeFilippis, Bob McConihe, Terry Bora, Sharon Minkel, Marialice Mangan, Bob Miller, Sharon King, Joe Murnane and John Nolan. Without their dedication, this project couldn't be completed.

The current version going online is provisional. While it has been proofread against the film, the film was hard to read at times, therefore, currently a great person living in Troy is going to take the work and check the names against the original census book at the Rensselaer County Clerk's office in Troy. When that is completed, it will be noted on the 1st ward page but it may take another month or so.

You can find a link to the 1st ward (with map) on the Troy section of my website using either URL under my name. There will also be links from the Rensselaer website on both the census and Troy sections which I will be adding after this email goes out.

A. The message can be forwarded to other lists where you feel it would be appropriate. If posted to any other lists, please copy: seamus@nycap.rr.com

B. The largest project the Troy Irish Genealogy Society has undertaken so far is the automation of the Rensselaer County Marriage Index. This 10 Volume Marriage Index of Rensselaer County marriages, from 1908 to 1935, has over 60,000 names. Volume I, with its 5,000 marriages and 10,000 names was the initial step of this major project and is now available on the TIGS website.

C. You can view these marriage records by going to the Troy Irish Genealogy website at: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/> and click on TIGS PROJECTS and then click on TIGS Projects In The Works. It should be noted that these records, like most of the TIGS data series, cover the general population in the area and are NOT restricted to Irish surnames.

D. If you are researching relatives with a RENSSELAER COUNTY, NY area connection, you will be interested in this new on-line, name searchable, data base of 10,000 names of local residents who were married in Rensselaer County, New York. If you live in a nearby county or even further away, you might want to check out the data base. There are also marriages in the data base where both individuals lived in Albany County or other nearby counties, and where some individuals lived in other states, especially Massachusetts and Vermont, or even foreign countries. One record even was for a bride and groom who both lived in Pennsylvania. You may even find earlier marriages that you were unaware of. Take a look at the data base, you never know what you will find.

E. In order to appreciate the marriage index on the TIGS website, you need an understanding of the set up of the Marriage Index book at the County Clerk's Office. All marriages, along with complete detailed information on the bride and groom and their parents, were first entered into the Record of Marriages Book. Brides and Grooms names were then posted to the Marriage Index Book which served as a locating device to find the complete record in the Record of Marriages Book itself. Without the Marriage Index, you could not locate a name in the Record of Marriages Book. The Marriage Index Book has SEPARATE pages of data for Brides and SEPARATE pages of data for Grooms. For example, for the letter "A", there is a page of Brides names beginning with "A" and ANOTHER page of Grooms names beginning with the letter "A". The data on each page is limited to the first and last name, a page reference number, a marriage license number and the date of the marriage. The name of the SPOUSE is NOT shown in the index. The only linkage to the spouse in the Marriage Index is the marriage number.

F. The TIGS data base has greatly improved the usefulness of the Marriage Index as follows:

1. By using the marriage number, the TIGS Marriage Index now links the names of the brides AND the grooms on ONE LINE of data, thus providing a much more useful research tool.

2. Some entries in the Record of Marriages Book were never posted to the Marriage Index Book. These missing records were identified by TIGS workers and added to the TIGS Marriage Index.

3. A number of records in the Marriage Index showed only INITIALS for either the bride or the groom. In many cases TIGS workers were able to determine the ACTUAL names from the original source documents and added them to the TIGS data base.

4. Several records for grooms names were originally posted to the brides pages of the Marriage Index Book and a number of brides names were posted to the grooms pages of the Marriage Index Book. TIGS workers corrected these errors in developing the TIGS index.

5. A number of transcribing errors when the Marriage Index Book was created were discovered by TIGS workers and corrected.

6. Last but not least, the TIGS Marriage Index is in strict alphabetical order unlike the original index. For example, on the original index, you may have four or more pages of Grooms names all beginning with the first two letters "Ma" and in no order whatsoever.

G. In using the TIGS Marriage Index data base, keep in mind the following:

1. Handwriting in some cases was very difficult to read and there could be some problems with spelling.

2. At times, the original posting to the Marriage Index Book showed the marriage filing data instead of the date of the marriage.

3. Remember, the TIGS index is a transcription of the Marriage Index Book and NOT the Record of Marriages Book itself. It is always possible that the original source documents, the Affidavit For License To Marry, the Certificate And Record of Marriage and the Certificate of Consent, (for minors), were not posted correctly to the Record of Marriages Book, or that entries in the Record of Marriages Book were not posted correctly to the Marriage Index Book, or that TIGS transcribers misread the handwriting. If there is a question on any entry, the actual source documents at the County Clerk's Office would have to be referenced.

The TIGS website has a PRINTABLE FORM that can be used to request copies of the above documents from the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office. Mailing instructions and fees are on the request form.

H. An example of two entries in the Record of Marriages Book is shown on the TIGS website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/> Click on PROJECTS, then click on TIGS PROJECTS IN THE WORKS and then click "See Sample Record". The following information for the bride and the groom is shown in the Record of Marriages Book and in the primary source documents:

1. Name.
2. Residence.
3. Occupation.
4. Birthplace.
5. Color.
6. Age.
7. Number of Marriage. (first, second, etc.)
8. If widowed or Divorced, Where & When.
9. Father's Name and Birthplace.
10. Mother's Name and Birthplace.
11. Consent By & Relationship (For Minors) 12. Date of License.
13. Date of Marriage.
14. Place of Marriage.
15. Official Performing Marriage & Profession. (Priest, Minister, Rabbi, etc) 16. Names of Witnesses.

I. The original pages of the Marriage Index Book were scanned by TIGS members. The resulting pdf files were then sent to the volunteers working on the project as an attachment to an email, along with an Excel spreadsheet for data entry. This extensive data base was made possible by the following volunteers who did a fantastic job on Volume I., the initial phase of this project. Please note that we had volunteers from all over the United States and even up into Canada.

Kay Brearton - Wynantskill, New York

Linda Christian-Herot - Newton, Massachusetts Penny Christopher - Melrose, New York Bill Delaney - California Lynn Carey Grice - New Paltz, New York Joan Howe - Iowa Jeanne Keefe - Troy, New York Stephanie Kinney-Dewey - Logan, Ohio Marilyn Mahoney - Arlington, Massachusetts Bob McConihe - Haverhill, Massachusetts Cathy & Bill McGrath - Clifton Park, New York James L. Owens, Rockville, Maryland Jayne Paradis - Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada Carol Schrom - Troy, New York Barbara Skeritt - South Carolina Lizette Strait - New York State Janice Sullivan - Clifton Park, New York Lori Taylor-Blitz - Escanaba, Michigan Susan Toomy Russell - Georgia Pam Trudeau - Advance, North Carolina Carol Waldron - Saratoga Springs, New York Eileen Callahan Werth - Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania Valerie Werth - Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania Donna Vaughn, New York State

J. We invite you to explore the TIGS website where you will find local history articles, resources and genealogy research tips as well as a number of free data bases. The TIGS mailing list, which is also free, is ideal for posting your Troy area genealogy queries. There are also some interesting photographs on the TIGS website from our group tours of the Gardner Earl Memorial Chapel at Oakwood Cemetery, the Burden Iron Works Museum and the Watervliet Arsenal Museum. To see these photographs click on "NEXT" on the first page of the website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/> and then click on "TOURS" on the left side of the next screen. Also, you can search your surnames in the following additional records transcribed by TIGS members and other volunteers. These data bases are part of a continuing effort by the Troy Irish Genealogy Group to make available on line, Troy and other nearby area records, that may be of interest to genealogy researchers, especially those outside ! the Capital Area.

Burden Iron Company Steam Mill Payroll Records. (8,236 names) Troy Area Marriage Records. (1,448 names) Troy Area Death Records. (6,031 names) Index-History of the Troy Police Department. (668 names) Bank Officers in Troy Banks From 1801-1891. (299 names) Prominent Citizens of Troy, NY & Rensselaer County. (1,800 names) Representative Young Irish-Americans of Troy, NY - 1899 (400 names) Deceased Troy, NY Area Individuals Listed in 1902 City Directory (700 names) Alderman/Assistants In Troy, NY (1,400 names)

K. The next step in the Marriage Index Project will be Volume II, which is another 5,000 records and 10,000 names. Volume II covers Rensselaer County marriages from April 23, 1913 to June 17, 1918. (Note: There will be a few records in Volume II with dates prior to April 23, 1913). If you want to be added to the list of volunteer transcribers, send an email off list to: seamus@nycap.rr.com with your name, address and telephone number. You will be contacted when work on Volume II starts in a few months time.

L. TIGS would like to hear from you if this marriage index was helpful in your family research.

Regards,

Bill McGrath
TIGS Project Coordinator
Clifton Park, NY

My husband and I are heading for the Troy area tomorrow to spend the summer at the lake. I hope to be able to attend one or more of the meetings this summer. I have enjoyed the postings and have learned a lot. I would like to meet some of the "locals, " especially all of you who have done such a great job on researching data and making it available to us novice genealogists.

Looking forward to the summer.

Trudy;

this is from the email that was sent by TIGS (Bill and Cathy McGrath) today. If you are a list member you would have received it also.

Following is an excerpt from a very informative and well planned communication from the McGraths: I can forward the whole thing if you like off list.

Lois in AZ

C. You can view these marriage records by going to the Troy Irish Genealogy website at: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/> and click on TIGS PROJECTS and then click on TIGS Projects In The Works. It should be noted that these records, like most of the TIGS data series, cover the general population in the area and are NOT restricted to Irish surnames.

Hello Trudy:

Go to the Troy Irish Genealogy Website at:

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

Click on PROJECTS

Then click on TIGS PROJECTS IN THE WORKS Then click on VOL. I.

This will bring up the Rensselaer County Marriage Index.

Hello Bill,

Thanks so much for your email. I have since found the information on the Rensselaer marriage index. Unfortunately I hadn't read far enough down on my messages before writing to Lois, a fellow List member, seeking information about the marriage index. I was lucky and found my Great Uncle, Patrick Feehan, listed with his wife May. I will send for a copy of their marriage and add it to my Fean/Feehan Family History. Thanks again for your kindness in replying to my question.

Kind Regards,
Trudy S.

Thank you to all our volunteers who worked so hard. I have finally finished with the transcription I have been working on and am now able to work on the next stage of this wonderful project. That is after Bill and Cathy get a vacation.....
Thanks again to all, I found out that my grandfather Richard Malone and Martha MacGregor were married on the same day I got married 59 years later.....just happens I am named after her, Kristin "Martha".....

Congratulations to Bill McGrath, Cathy McGrath and Jeanne Keefe for the wonderful job they did with the marriage index.

Although several people, myself included, assisted with the project, it would never have been completed without the extraordinary efforts and dedication of these three individuals.

I know that they are pleased every time they learn that someone found a family member in the index.

GREAT!!! Thanks alot!! Finally found some Gaynors (spelled correctly) in the Troy area. Bill, I have a question. Do they have marriage records from the 1820-1840 range? That would help me a bunch because if I am correct my GAYNOR family resided in the area at that time and in the 1840-1850 range they migrated to Wisconsin.

Again, thanks everyone for their hard work!

Good Morning Warren:

Glad that you found some of your relatives in the TIGS Rensselaer County Marriage Index.

As to your question about earlier marriages:

1. New York State laws on the reporting of births/deaths/marriages went into effect, I believe, in 1880.
2. Records prior to this are generally found at the various churches.
3. The marriage index in the County Clerk's office are in huge books and Vol. I the first book, is pre-printed with the numbers #1 through #5,000, and the marriage records start in 1909. So it is apparent that with these new books and numbering system, that some new type of reporting system was introduced in Rensselaer County in 1909.

We will be exploring with the Rensselaer County Clerk about the availability and location of earlier marriage records.

Regards,

Bill McGrath

The steep street you are referring to was probably Middleburgh Street which runs from River Street up the hill to Oakwood Avenue. I believe that street is in the 13th ward of the City of Troy and you might want to check census records for that ward to locate your family.

Hi, Warren,

I don't know whether I saw your first queries on Gaynors, but my South Troy grandmother (Mary Frances Maloney Dunn) had a friend named Josie Gayner from the early 1900s on; I have just confirmed it with my mother, but she couldn't remember the woman's first name. So I checked the marriage record database and found her (and her first name and husband's name):

GaynorJohn DolanMcGovernJosephine135171April 21, 1908

My mother said the Gaynors had at least one daughter who she thinks married a Hartigan. She also thinks that we have a photo of Josie Gaynor somewhere. If you have a connection, let me know and we'll try to find that picture to copy for you.

I also have found my grandparents and another relative in the database but have not had much time to look through it yet. Many thanks to everyone who worked on it!

Anyone know which Ward or Community Middleburgh Street was in for the 1830 and 1840 census? I am looking for GAYNOR (exact spelling) for the 1820-1850 time frame in Troy, NY. The Census, city directory and church (St. Peters) have not been successful. All we have are records from Wisconsin (several census and death records) that show that the family moved from New York to Milwaukee in the middle or late 1840s. In the 1850 census they are living in Milwaukee and show a son born in Wisconsin about 1848. All prior births are in New York starting in 1838. One son fought in the Civil War from Wisconsin and his records show he was born in Troy New York. That is all I have other than the four Gaynors that are in Volume 1 of the Marriage Data Base that Bill so kindly just posted. Can anyone do a lookup in the library for data that I cannot access online or borrow from the LDS? You can email me off list at wmetzgerusa@yahoo.com.

Thanks for your help.

Thanks Mary,

I'm not sure if the Gaynors from the early 1900s are related to the Gaynors I am looking for. I just replied to another inquiry (see my posting "Gaynors on Middleburgh Street") with the family history as I know it. The person (Thomas Gaynor) that served in the Civil War deserted in 1862 but there are some Thomas Gaynors that show up in the Troy area in the late 1800s. I cannot find a connection to the Thomas I am looking for but have not given up. You could email me off list at wmetzgerusa@yahoo.com with any photos or other details you might have.

Thanks

Hello Candis:

I would assume your request was the first one received at the County Clerk's Office.

Have just heard from Frank Merola, the Rensselaer County Clerk, that they got their first request and it was back in the mail in less than five minutes.

Be sure to let us hear when you receive the copies.

Thanks,

Bill McGrath

Hello Bill,

Thank you so much for sending me the information on the Rensselaer County marriage documents. I have now found the information I needed on my Gr. Uncle, Patrick Feehan's, marriage and will forward my request for the complete marriage information. Thank you for all your help.

Kindest Regards,

Speaking of St Peter's cemetery, are they going to put that wrought iron fence back up? I see Oakwood across the road has a nice new fence, and St Peters looks naked without that fence and gate. I'm sure the diocese isn't lacking for funds.

St. Peters Church is just North of what we call downtown Troy, but is in the city of Troy. The cemetery is located just outside the city limits in Brunswick, perhaps 3-4 miles from the Church. St. Peters Cemetery is directly across the road from OakWood Cemetery on Oakwood Avenue.

St. Peter's Cemetery is not part of the diocesan group of cemeteries and is still independent and connected to the Church which has very little funds.

Kay;
I recently got a record from the Albany Diocese cemeteries which showed none of the burials I was looking for. Do you have an address (email or street address) for St. Peter's? Since St. Peter's is independent, perhaps they have something.
Thanks,

I'd like to know what kind of certificate is obtained. Is it a modern typed form or a photocopy of the original? The latter is the one you want.

Also, vital records are usually registered in the municipality rather than the county, except for a few years.

Hello Nancy:

When you request the marriage record from the County Clerk's Office you will receive a photocopy of the following original documents:

1. Affidavit For License To Marry.
2. Certificate And Record of Marriage
3. Certificate of Consent (for minors)

Oh, good, a complete set of photocopies of original documents, rather than modern typed forms. The city of Schenectady also provides photocopies of the originals, but other places do not consistently do that.

St. Peters Church is still open and operating but from what I hear they will be closing within a year or two. Just not much of a parish left in that neighborhood. They operate in conjunction with St. Pauls which is up the hill from them.;

At one time they had the Church, school, convent, rectory and lyceum all operating and full to capacity. The block between Hoosick St. and Hutton Street of 5th Avenue was pretty much all St. Peters. The school and convent have been converted to shelter housing. The lyceum is still in use for occasional events. All of the buildings are beautiful brick structures.

I have no idea why they took the fence down but it does not make sense. There was no damage to the fence and it was in excellent condition. I am thinking that because of the heavy traffic on Oakwood the entrances became increasingly dangerous. They were very narrow openings and it was tricky coming in and out with todays larger vehicles.

Is there any way we can see the "beautiful brick structures"? I live in AZ and we don't have too many of those. Maybe there is a web site or posting?

And possibly was a visibility problem when pulling back out onto Oakwood exiting from the cemetery. Which must be done very quickly as it is a tough maneuver with traffic on Oakwood driving too fast past the cemetery. The fence was beautiful though. I visited the church not too long ago to just sit it in one of pews and take it all in, wishing I could back in time to see my family members.

I can certainly relate to your desire to go back in time to St. Peters. I brought my oldest son there to be baptized. We left that parish in 1967 I went back to get married in 1969 then in 1994 called and asked if we could bury my Mom from there. Even though we were in Sacred Heart there was no real connection. Wow to go back in time to the days of St. Peters I would give anything.....

Hi Listers,

I want to inform everyone that the TIGS mailing list is now a public list and all postings/emails are being archived. I received an email from RootsWeb this morning that our request has been finalized.

Please remember when posting from now, to make sure the subject line reflects the information in the email. Also, when replying to an email, please eliminate previous (old) emails from the reply. Sometimes a string goes back and forth several times and the subject strays.

Our list description will appear on LISTS of LISTS <http://lists.rootsweb.com/> within the next 24 hours. I have to email rootsweb a description of the list, and a url for the homepage.

I welcome suggestions on the description.

Jeanne,

Can you email me the url for the homepage.

If anyone has any question regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Regards,
Lizette

Connie, I have made quite a few visits to the office requesting family records. One visit a year ago I was told they do not have records before 1880, although my guess is that they do, but those records are unorganized and difficult to find. Good Luck. Tim Hooley

There are three separate components to the Troy Irish Genealogy Society that anyone can choose from:

1. You can subscribe to the FREE mailing list. List subscribers can post their Troy, NY & Surrounding Area genealogy inquiries/stories/reminisces, etc., receive postings from other list subscribers and generally keep abreast of what is happening with the Troy Irish Genealogy Society.
2. You can use the FREE website which has a number of name searchable data bases for locating ancestors and relatives in addition to a number of photographs and articles & stories relating to Troy, NY and the Surrounding Area.
3. You can join the Troy Irish Genealogy Society as a PAID member if you are interested. This helps to support the genealogy projects and it also makes it possible for you to vote in the elections for TIGS officers.

For those who would like to become a paid member of the Troy Irish Genealogy Society, and for those current members who wish to renew their membership, dues are $5.00 a year. Dues are now payable for the new year which runs from June 1, 2006 through May 31, 2007.

Checks, made payable to TIGS, can be mailed to:

Catherine McGrath
TIGS Treasurer
48 Bayberry Dr.

Welcome, Rosemary. I hope you will come to our TIGS meetings where you will meet some fellow South Trojans. I attended St. Joseph's with your brother, Dan. We also met years ago at a meeting of the Troy LAOH.

At the meetings, you will meet people who are happy to assist you in your research with any information they possess.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

This message is being sent to the Troy Irish Genealogy Society (TIGS) mailing list and the Rensselaer County mailing list.

The Local News Section of today's Times Union newspaper www.timesunion.com has an interesting story on the Gardner Earl Chapel and Crematorium at Oakwood Cemetery.

Some TIGS members toured the Chapel on November 8, 2003 and the TOURS SECTION of the TIGS website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/> has a description of that tour along with many photographs. There are 11 photographs of the Chapel itself, including some beautiful shots of the famous Tiffany stained glass windows. Another 13 photographs show various scenes and interesting monuments at Oakwood Cemetery.

Also, on the TIGS website, under the LOCAL HISTORY SECTION is an article on the History of Oakwood Cemetery taken from the book Troy's One Hundred Years - 1789-1889 published in 1891.

Both of these articles complement the story in today's Times Union.

Bill McGrath

Hi, Got the papers from Rens County Clerk today. They are actual copies of the Affidavit for License to Marry. I believe it's giving me the maiden name of Georgiana's Mother which I didn't have before, but the script is hard to interpret. Since they are both listed as Collarworkers, perhaps that's how they met. This is consistent with some of the census data I've seen for the DeLong family. They worked at home as collarworkers. My mother says that her mother never talked about her childhood and the name listed as the maiden name is totally new to her. Very interesting.
Thank everyone so much for the hard work on the index.

Thanks Bill. Last week up from FL with my mom and sister I did a quick run through of St. John's Cem in the Burgh and St. Peter's gathering "other" Connolly members of our family, then put flowers on Dad and aunt Lillian's gravesites in St. Mary's where most Connolly's from 1847 are located. I was stunned and happily surprised that our MAGUIRE/CONNOLLY cross marker was tipping over badly las year----and someone went to caeful lengths to reposition it and secure it. I still don't know who?

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

This message is being sent to the Troy Irish Genealogy Society (TIGS) mailing list, the Rensselaer County mailing list and the Irish-NY-Troy list.

On June 19, I sent a request to the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office for copies of the marriage papers for one of the records I found on the new Rensselaer County Marriage Index on the Troy Irish Genealogy Website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

Today, June 22, I received the papers in the mail.

While I already knew the names of the bride and groom, JOHN J. McCORMICK and CATHERINE A. TYRELL, I now know the following additional bits of information from these marriage documents:

1. John J. McCormick, was 30 years of age, born in Troy and this was his first marriage.
2. Catherine A. Tyrell was 26 years of age, born in Troy and this was her first marriage. (I had various spellings for the last name of the bride. Since she signed her name as TYRELL, that is the spelling I will now use in my records)
3. John was a rougher in a iron mill.
4. Catherine was a collar worker.
5. Parents of John were Matthew McCormick and Katherine Markey, both born in Ireland.
6. Parents of Catherine were Thomas Tyrell and Catherine Smith, both born in Ireland.
7. Witnesses were Thomas J. Mulholland and Margaret Tyrell.
8. Wedding was August 10, 1909 and the address of the priest was Stow Avenue, so the church had to be St. Michael's.
9. Priest's name looks like Patrick B. Dempsey.

On top of all the above information, you get to see the actual signatures of all the parties involved. It was well worth the $5.00 to get copies of these marriage records.

Regards,

Bill McGrath

When you go to Ancestry.com, it's a dark square (with red letters & green buttons) on the right bottom of the screen that says:
"The US Census Collection is Complete
1790-1930
Dive In" (click that)

If you don't see it, look to see if you are signed in at the top of the screen. If you've ever had an Ancestry subscription, it automatically signs you in (you will see "Welcome" and then your screen name at the top). If this is the case, you need to "logout" and then you will see the square as described above.

They make it a little tricky to get in.

Donna, I can't seem to get into the above mentioned e-mail about Irish music. These biker, etc. albums keep coming up. Are you sure that this is on the up-and-up? I'm sure that I must be doing something wrong on this website. Can you help me out? Thanks, Doris

Doris,

I am on it right now. The site has been experiencing difficulties all day and I was unable to get on all day.

You need to go to <http://www.midwestirishradio.com>

Then click "Listen Live Now" Another window will pop up with the music.

You can even see where all the listeners are by clicking on "Listener Location"

Good Luck,
Lizette

Doris,

The actual site is <http://www.midwestirishradio.com/mwir/index.htm>

Then click on "Listen Live Now"

They give Local Irish News etc...

A cousin of my father's and his sister found my name on the surname list on the TIGS website and wrote me a long email.

I can't wait to share information with them.

Thanks for a great website!

Hi Anne!

We have Canadian Delaneys on my wife's side.

I'm Jim Denny from Buffalo, NY, now living in Oro Valley, AZ. My Dad's family were all from Troy, NY via Ireland. Now to the Delaneys: My wife's g-grandmother, Mary Anne Revels (her parents were from Cos. Cork and Wexford) married Robert J. Delaney in Prescott, Ontario, St. Marks RC Church, on 4 Feb. 1855. That marriage produced 13-children. Robert was from Co. Wexford; his parents were Martin Delaney and Mary Malone(y. Robert was a ship's captain with his Master's Lic. for the Inland Waterways from Ottawa, dated 5 May 1895.

Pls. let me know if this is a fit. Oh, yes! Robert had a brother Patrick Delaney who died 21 November 1875 in Prescott.

Good hunting!

Jim

Bill,

Congratulations on finding family relations in Ireland - what a "Eureka" moment that must have been. I am related to Delaney's on the Canadian side (St.Columban & St.Andrews East, Quebec). Great story!

The not too recent discussion of Michael Collins led me to check out my library's DVD of the movie of the same name with Liam Neeson in the title role and Julia Roberts as a diversionary love interest. This movie about violent times is rated R for violence but it certainly delivers the message of the times. Newsreels included as an extra feature on the DVD add much to the experience.

The fiction of Morgan Llywelyn is a more gentle approach to that period with her novels "1916" and "1921". This author has over 20 works of historical fiction that range over the course of Irish history. They are absorbing and highly recommended.

Someone recently posted that there were three days of free access to the 1930 census at ancestry.com. I looked up a number of family members. Today was a post about articles on the TIGS site. A number of members of the DeLong family were collar workers at home according to the census, but also my grandfather Nolan, though not at home. I've had a lot of interesting information to mull over lately thanks to posts at TIGS. Thanks.

Hello,

I am researching information on the Feehan family of Troy, NY.

My Great Uncle, Patrick Feehan, lived at 2141 Seventh St. in 1930.

He died in 1934 and is buried in St. Peter's cemetery in Troy.

His wife's name was Mae (Canfield) Feehan.

I was hoping to find some information on their children:

John Francis (1912-1928), Mary (1919), Regina (1921-2001), Thomas (1924-1956) and Timothy (1930).

I am attempting to write a Fean/Feehan Family History and any information on these children, and possible their children would be very helpful to its completion.

Any help, or suggestions, would be truly appreciated. Thank you.

Trudy (Fean) Smith

Hello Trudy:

Did you look at the marriage index on the TIGS website?

I think your Patrick Feehan is listed on the index as marrying a May Canfired. The brides last name on the TIGS website is most likely a misreading of the handwriting. It appears the correct name should read "Canfield."

You can order copies of these marriage records for $5.00 from the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office as explained on the website. The following information can be obtained from these documents:

1. Name.
2. Residence.
3. Occupation.
4. Birthplace.
5. Color.
6. Age.
7. Number of Marriage. (first, second, etc.)
8. If widowed or Divorced, Where & When.
9. Father's Name and Birthplace.
10. Mother's Name and Birthplace.
11. Consent By & Relationship (For Minors) 12. Date of License.
13. Date of Marriage.
14. Place of Marriage.
15. Official Performing Marriage & Profession. (Priest, Minister, Rabbi, etc)
16. Names of Witnesses.

These forms are well worth the $5.00. You also can print the request form on line and best of all, the response time from the County Clerk's office is fantastic.

Hello Bill,

Thanks for your email. Yes, I did see the marriage index offer on the TIG site and have taken advantage of it. I sent for, and received, the two page marriage information on my Great Uncle Patrick Feehan and his 'bride'

Mae Canfield. I did have some info on them but not their marriage date.

If I could now find some information on their children, it would be like icing on the cake.
ha

Thanks again.

Trudy

I'd suggest surrogate's court records in Rensselaer County, in Troy.
All heirs would be listed in the probate packet.

I am attempting to write a Fean/Feehan Family History and any information on these children, and possible their children would be very helpful to its completion.

Hello Trudy

We will be fixing the spelling on the website.

One question, is first name Mae or May on your documents?

Thanks,

Bill

Hello Bill,
My Great Aunt's name is Mary "Mae" (Canfield) Freehan.
Thanks for changing the spelling on the index. :)
