Subject: [TIGS] A new cousin, thanks to TIGS

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Hello, Friends,

I returned from the Ballykilcline Society's Reunion in Vermont on Thursday evening and found an important message awaiting me, thanks to the TIGS web site. Some months ago, I posted a Dunn family history in Kildare and Troy under the Dunn name on the TIGS site. A woman recently found it while doing an internet search on the Dunn name and realized that it also was her family history.

It turns out that our gggrandfathers -- her Edward and my Laurence -- were brothers in Kildare. Her gggrandfather's brother Laurence followed my Michael Dunn from Kildare to Troy where he died of typhoid around 1870, which is mentioned in the posted history.

I have a new cousin, thanks to TIGS. A fourth cousin, she tells me. Now we are pooling our information.

Below is the message I received from her. Thanks so much to everyone connected with the TIGS web site. And it was great to attach faces to TIGS names after last Monday's Reunion brunch in Albany where Jeanne Keefe gave a fine presentation about the Irish in Troy.

Mary Lee Dunn

Dear Mary,

I read with great interest the article you wrote for the Troy Irish Genealogy Society. In your article you speak of Michael Dunn and his father Laurence and his uncle Edward.....I am a descendent of Edward Dunn (he was my great-great grandfather).....I also was able to reconnect with distant cousins in County Kildare (descendants of Edward and Ellen Dunn)and was able to get a memorial card with a picture of Ellen Dunn on it...How exciting it was to be able to see a photo of my great-great grandmother who died in 1901 I hope to meet these relatives sometime in the Fall.....I so enjoyed your article and truly appreciated all the information in it. Thank you so much.....

Sincerely,

Rosemary Kopczynski

I am having trouble accessing information from this 'free access' offer. Do I have to join Origins Network? I am trying to research Irish records but it seems that all free information is concentrated on England.

Any help greatly appreciated.

It's been working fine for me today. In order to view the actual record, though, you need to download a viewer from their site, and a prompt comes up if you hit the "view actual record." But I've been able to search and view everything else. Anyone else out there who's successfully tried it?

It was great to hear from a cousin of your organization. I was born in Albany but my grandmother's grandfather was Hugh Trainor of Troy who was married in a double wedding with his sister Sarah Trainor at St. Peter's Church in 1836. He married Margaret Lavery and she married John Hale. It will be great to start to search your indexes, etc. Many thanks.

Lois, It says the user name is already in use. That probably means the first one you used probably worked. What I found is that I had to click on edit my info or something like that in order to get in properly so that I could search.

Try just going to the site and use the first user name and password to log in and see if that works.

Just wanted to say thank you for posting ...in advance... that there would be free access to the Origins site for the brief period (July 4/5).

My sister and I were in Ireland for a couple of weeks last month, and in our excitement, neglected to search BACKWARDS from our great grandfather and get copies of the information in the canceled land books at the Valuation Office. (Actually, looked back, but never ordered the copies.) At any rate, we bought copies of what we knew to be family information and the section of the beautiful, old map showing the area of their 21 acres in Moher, just south of Ballinasloe in County Galway. Further, when we arrived in Galway a few days later, we were able, with help, to find the land and the man who now owns it, and from our conversation, were directed to the remains of the house where JOHN REYNOLDS had lived...with 1st wife MARGARET MOONEY and children Michael and Maria (Mary) Reynolds, and then with our great grandmother JANE ANDERSON and their sons William Martin, John Joseph, and Patrick Reynolds. NO words to describe what that visit meant to us.

Although the Originsnetwork site didn't show the handwritten pages that we were able to see in the old books at the Valuation Office, I was at least able to "go back" to the primary valuation information in the original format, on line, and print copies, for which I am appreciative... That became important because our great great grandfather, MARTIN REYNOLDS married a HONORA POWELL. His son, great grand-father John, "took over" the land from a DANIEL POWELL... and JOHN POWELL is the name on the primary valuation for that same land so...another lesson learned and maybe a couple more generations picked up in the process. Very cool. So thanks again for the posting.

Sheila

This message is being sent to the Troy Irish Genealogy Society (TIGS) mailing list, the Rensselaer County mailing list and the Irish-NY-Troy list, the O'Connor list and the Tipperary O'Connor list.

As I am researching O'Connor's in Troy, NY and Nenagh, County Tipperary, Ireland and McCormick's in Troy, NY and Dunbin, County Louth, Ireland, I wanted to share the following informaton I received from the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office.

On June 21, I sent a request to the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office for copies of the marriage papers for one of the records I found on the new 10,000 name Rensselaer County Marriage Index on the Troy Irish Genealogy Website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

On June 27, I received the marriage papers in the mail.

While I already knew the names of the bride and groom, DAVID DUFTY and JULIA O'CONNOR, I now know the following additional bits of information from these marriage documents:

1. David Dufty, was 34 years of age, born in England and this was his first marriage.
2. Julia O'Connor was 31 years of age, born in Troy and this was her first marriage.
3. David was a moulder.
4. Julia was a laundry worker.
5. Parents of David were David Dufty and Betsey Davis, both born in England.
6. Parents of Julia were Timothy O'Connor and Catherine McCormick, both born in Ireland.
7. Witnesses were Thomas G. McNamara and Elizabeth McNamara.
8. Wedding was February 12, 1911 at St. Michael's Church, Troy, NY.
9. Priest's name looks like Patrick B. Dempsey.

On top of all the above information, you get to see the actual signatures of all the parties involved. It was well worth the $5.00 to get copies of these marriage records and the response time from the County Clerk's Office is fantastic.

Note: From prior research I know that the parents of Catherine McCormick O'Connor were Patrick McCormick and Catherine Gaskin and the parents of Timothy O'Connor were William O'Connor and Catherine Gleason.

Bill McGrath

Hello Jim,

Forgive me for a tardy reply - life was busy for a while. I don't think that my Delaney connection is linked to anyone with that surname in Ontario at the time. But..., your mentioning that Robert Delaney had obtained his Captain's papers from the Inland Waterways in Ottawa is interesting. The children of many Irish settlers (including mine) in St.Colomban, worked on the waterways in Ottawa or in nearby Carillon - in addition "my" Delaney family seems to have been based in nearby St.Andrews East (near Ottawa & St.Columban) so there may have easily been interprovincial exchanges. I will keep your information on file as I sometimes hear from other people seeking to "place" their Delaney crew! The confusing aspect to all this is the "limited" use of 1st names by many of these Irish families (Martin, Michael, Robert, Patrick, etc). Thank you for providing me with the details about your wife's family. Good luck with your work,

Anne, Montreal

Some of the local Troy area newspapers have just published an interesting and informative article from the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office about the new Marriage Index on the Troy Irish Genealogy website, <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

For those list members who have not seen the article, and for those who do not have access to local newspapers, a copy of the news item is shown below.

Bill McGrath
TIGS Project Coordinator
Clifton Park, NY

NEWS ITEM:

RENSSELAER COUNTY CLERK PARTNERS WITH TROY
IRISH GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

A partnership between Rensselaer County Clerk Frank J. Merola and members of the Troy Irish Genealogy Society (TIGS) has resulted in the automation of over 5,000 marriage records in Rensselaer County beginning in 1908. When complete, over 30,000 Rensselaer County marriages between 1908 and 1935 will be automated and available for searching through the Genealogy society's website.

"I am very pleased to be involved in this partnership with a great organization that is willing to take the time and effort necessary to open our historical records through the use of the internet which will allow those interested to search these records from their home or office rather than in taking a trip into Troy to examine these books," Mr. Merola said, "I am very grateful to TIGS president Donna Vaughn, project coordinator Bill McGrath, webmaster/librarian Jeanne Keefe, and the rest of the members of the Troy Irish Genealogy Society who contributed the time and effort necessary to complete this large project. TIGS volunteers from around the US worked to convert the original marriage index records to digital files which made them accessible through the Internet."

Anyone interested in viewing the first index of marriage records is encouraged to go to the Troy Irish Genealogy Society website at www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/ and click on 'TIGS PROJECTS' and then Rensselaer County Marriage Index, Vol. 1. These records cover the general area population and are not restricted to Irish surnames. The website also provides a printable form that can be used to request copies of the Affidavit for License to Marry, the Certificate and Record of Marriage and in the case of minors, the Certificate of Consent from the Rensselaer County Clerk's office. The Rensselaer County Clerk's office charges a $5.00 fee for retrieval services of these marriage records. The marriage forms provided by the County Clerk's Office, Mr. Merola stated, will be of great interest to family researchers. Some items of interest on the forms, Merola indicated, are the ages, addresses, occupations and place of birth of the bride and groom as well as the names and place of both of the parents.

Mr. Merola anticipates a continuation of this project until the ten volume Marriage Index has been completed and foresees future collaboration with the Troy Irish Genealogy Society that will benefit Rensselaer County residents and historians alike.

"Preservation of our records has always been a priority of mine because our heritage is irreplaceable. We have made tremendous progress in restoring County naturalization records and with the help of organizations such as the Irish Genealogy Society we will not only be able to preserve our records but develop a format where people can utilize modern methods to search their histories. I am thrilled to partner with this great organization and I am thrilled about the future of genealogy in Rensselaer County.

However, I have found a few names that are of interest to me. My O'Connor family started in Waterford, NY in about 1850 and had many families still there into the 1920's.

Please advise if you need any more info from me to get on your list. What info about the Rainey and O'Connor families do I need to forward to you to get these names included?

Hi Mike, I have to say yes, yes, yes.

I grew up across the street from the funeral home where all of my family was buried from. & when I first started researching my Ryan's that's where I hit a jackpot. They opened in 1900 and the owner had an index and crossed referenced every name up until about 1930/1931. The cost of continuing to do that probably why they stopped. I was so excited to find all this information at one time that I made several trips there to recheck and recheck. On my mothers side, McCabe's, Fearon (spelled many ways), McCusker, at the bottom of the page it was noted all the relations to a book and page number. It was just loaded with wonderful info. I was able to just sit there and read & copy everything. I also knew the family that owned the funeral home so that helped me get in the door.

BUT, at some of the other funeral homes all I would get is the minimum info. It's amazing what some of the records have written on them.

Bob

Some years ago on a trip to Oklahoma we were able to develop records on a number of my wife's ancestors from a funeral home in a small town. The local priest was singularly uncooperative and missed out on the usual overgenerous donation she usually provided. I learned that funeral homes were a good place to look if all else fails.

There are many new members to the list and it would be a good way to get to know who is researching who. Maybe we oldies will find a new tibbit or two.

Please remember to put the surnames in ALL CAPITAL LETTERS in the subject line.

Candlin - Came to America in 1869. Lived in Albany and Rensselaer County 1920's-present

Candlin - Cavan
Cummisky - Armagh, Monaghan, Cavan
Brady - Maybe Cavan
Donlan - Clare, Galway, Cavan

James and Rachel Galbraith were in Troy in 1880, and in the country from about 1860, living with their daughter Mary and her husband William Wiswall at 39 Dow Street. About 1870 another daughter, Elizabeth, married William Argy, who was working in Waterford on his way "home" to Mass after the Civil War.

John and Bridget Darrigan were at 359 Orr Street with their five children, in the country about twenty years in 1880. Their daughter Anna married Alexander Argy, son of William and Elizabeth above. The Argys all went on to Turners Falls, Corinth/Palmer Falls and Niagara Falls from one paper mill to the next.

Hello,

Your site is wonderful and I look forward to all the new information yet to come. My family names include McCarthy- John and Mary(McCarty) arrived in the 1850's from Ireland and resided in south Troy, attended St. Mary's Church and school, and lived at 190 and then 192 Hill Street until the 1960's. Mahoney-John married Anne Ryan(late 1880's), his second wife was Kate. Sons were Harold, Leo, Rupert, Edwin(my grandfather) and John. I believe they were members of St. Francis DeSales. In early years they lived in Brunswick.

O'Neil- Still trying to research this family. Catherine Agnes O'Neil married Thomas J. McCarthy @ 1887(my great grandparents) and had a large family that included: Margaret, Mary, Catherine(Kitty), Elizabeth, Anna(my grandmother), Thomas, Vincent, Edward, Joseph. Margaret married Thomas Gannon, Mary married James Neville, Kitty married James Broderick, Anna married Edwin Mahoney and Elizabeth joined the Daughters of Charity. I don't have information on Thomas, Joseph, Edward or Vincent. Thomas J. McCarthy was a well known postal carrier and was very active in charity work in the city of Troy. Family lore says other family names include Price and Tracy. I have not been able to verify this. Thanks and hopefully someone will connect with some part of this.

My father's grandfather, Samuel McCOCHRANE, born in Ireland abt.1849, I think emigrated to PA first (abt 1867) because his two oldest children, John and Matilda, were born in PA in 1878 and 1879. He was married to Nora CONNORS born in England d/o Dennis CONNORS and Margaret HERRON. I believe Samuel had more than just one sister, Matilda McCOCHRANE who married Henry CONROY. I think he had another sister who lived in Schaghticoke, still looking into that. My earliest record of their living in Troy is 1885 (Lansingburgh) where Samuel worked at Ludlow Valve.

They had 6 more children while in Troy from 1881 to 1892--James, Thomas, Samuel, Nora, Robert, and Isabel.

My mother's grandfather, James Henry NEARY, s/o John NEARY and Pricilla HOWARTH d/o Henry HOWARTH and Nancy COLE who had 18 children all born in NY near Saritoga.

This is my first reply so I may not be giving the right info so please advise:

My great grandfather Maurice (Morris) Rainey married a Mary Martin (daughter of William Martin) from Troy in 1869. Mary was only 18 at the time. She died in November, 1894 having 12 children only six that made it to adulthood. Morris lived from 1838 to 1906 living in Troy all those years except from 1859 to 1865. He somehow ended up in the Alabama Confederate Army and was taken prisoner in April, 1865 in Virginia. Both Morris and Mary are buried in St Joseph's Cemetery in Troy.

I have not done any more investigation into the Martin family. Please advise if this is any connection to your Margaret Martin.

Good Morning TIGS List Members:

List members will be interested in the following email about a "find" on the new TIGS marriage index.

Email is from Lin Van Buren from London, England. Lin, by the way, is the Co-ordinator of the Rensselaer Co. NY GenWeb site and her site recently celebrated passing the 500,000 mark for visitors. Lin's site has a number of tie-ins to the TIGS site and she now has a large "front page" blurb about the new TIGS marriage index.

Address for the Rensselaer Co. NY GenWeb site is: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nyrensse/>

This site is a "must see" one. It is huge, with a 2,300 page data base, and all kinds of records, stories, photographs for Rensselaer County.

Regards,

Bill McGrath
Clifton Park, NY

Hi, Bill

The link is there now; I'll put something more permanent up in due course, but for now, you're right on the front page!

By the way, I did visit the Marriage Index (and found one of "mine" already, a Viola M. Van Buren whose married name I didn't know - now I can find her in two censuses!), and it is a wonderful resource! And congratulations to someone at TIGS for talking a government record office into letting you make this great resource accessible online for free! It's nice to see a bit of co-operation between the record holders and the genies of the world.

Cheers

Why can't people post to the list if they are wondering when the meeting will be??

SULLIVAN. Still looking for Annie Elizabeth Sullivan born 1856 in Troy or Cork. I think born in Cork and em about 1880 with her brothers, Michael and John. She came to MT, but the others stayed in Troy as I have never heard of them. Only have a pic of a Michael Sullivan, young man taken about 1910-1920. Bette

Hi Kevin:

I received this message recently. Does this look like it could be our people? (below) Laura Martin Murphy born 1874 in Ireland and died 21 June 1921 . Martin, Married Naomi Finehout 23 May 1894. Martin's parents were Robert Murphy who was born in Wexford Ireland (no date) and died 19 March 1920 in East Greenbush, and Elizabeth Finn who he married in 1872. Elizabeth was the daughter of James Finn and Catherine Finn. I would appreciate any info you may have on these folk's and have other Murphy info to share . Thank You ,Jim

Luckily I have central air conditioning so if its still this hot we can have the meeting indoors. If it cool off we can still have it on the screen porch. Hope to see you then.

She married James Candlin and had at least 3 sons, Philip, John, and Patrick all born in Cavan County. Her sons Philip, John and Patrick Candlin came to America in 1869 and settled in Worcester, MA.

Your email intrigues me, Lizette, on two counts. First, if you remember I have a Hugh Flynn who married a Cummisky, most of their children were born in Troy and both were born in Ireland and buried in St Joseph's Cemetery. We don't know where our Cummisky was born in Ireland and we believe Hugh was born in either County Leix or County Leitrim. But the interesting part is that two of his sisters ended up in Worcester MA. So, not believing in coincidents, I am wondering if there is a connection between your Cummisky and ours, since they both ended up in Troy.

The other question, I guess I have is, whether you are referring to County Cavan in Ireland, or Cavan County in Virginia. I am not familiar with the counties of Virginia, nor am I very familiar with County Cavan but since you put the 'county' after Cavan, I am wondering if you are referring to the USA.

Pat,

There is no Cavan County in Virginia, USA nor in West Virginia. West Virginia was formed from Virginia during the Civil War in 1863. There is a town in County Cavan, Ireland, named Virginia.

I was wondering how information in the Troy City Directory was collected and would be interested in a referral to a writeup on the subject and hearing what people have learned. Did an individual show up at the Directory office and fill out a form (if he could) or be interviewed. Given changes in spelling of surnames, it seems there were other sources such as employers, landlords and maybe even local government. When an individual got a new job or moved, there might be two entries in a given year and not always with the same spelling of his surname. Also, people who were employed and did jobs independently as well seem to have multiple entries. All in all a fascinating subject for a remarkable collection of "documents".

Perhaps Franklin County is a reference to Franklin County in an American state, with the clerk writing down his county of residence and then adding his country of birth.

Or does the word "franklin" have a meaning in Ireland like freeman?

Pat,

I am referring to Virginia, Co Cavan Ireland. My gggrandfather, Philip Candlin (Margaret Cummysky's son) was naturalized so I know he was born in Cavan County, Ireland. He married Rose Donlan and her mother was a Brady. I found both Cummyskys and Bradys near Virginia, Co. Cavan, Ireland, but have not made a connection yet.

It is interesting that your Cummyskys were in Worcester. When researching the Candlins in Worcester through census, I believe I found Cummyskys living near the Candlins. I thought that could have been the reason why they chose Worcester. I have to check my records to see for sure.

Also, just to let you know, I have been in contact with Andrew Billingham of Rootsweb about a MA Irish list. It is amazing that there is no Irish list in MA considering the Irish immigration into the state. They deemed it viable to create a new list, so I am in the queue. I will be posting to other lists when the list is created.

I will get back to you.

Tiara (The Irish Ancestral Research Association) has wonderful website with a Surname list, links to other websites and lots of interesting information. (www.tiara.ie). All of this information is free.

New England Historical and Genealogical Society also has a website (www.newenglandancestors.org) some of their information is free but most is through membership only. They have an index of Massachusetts Vital Records.

Any vital records prior to 1910 are on microfilm and accessed for free at the state archives. Any vital records after 1910 may be researched at the Massachusetts Registry of Vital Records and Statistics. There is a nine dollar an hour charge to use the research room but most records are available and you are allowed to copy anything.

There are two genealogy conferences coming up.

1. The Federation of Genealogical Societies is having a conference in Boston from August 30 to September 2. Many of the lectures are specific to Ireland.

Information about this conference is on the TIARA website.

2. (closer to NY!!) The New England Regional Genealogical Conference hosts a 3 day conference every two years. There are five different lectures each hour so you can attend whatever you are interested in. The next conference is April 26-29, 2007 and is being held in Hartford, CT. I have been to two of these in the past and they are always excellent. (www.nergc.org).

Hi Pam. I'm sure the address is 343 First St. although on the census it looks like 393. However, it's right between 341 and 345, so I'm guessing either the census taker mistakenly wrote the wrong number, or it's some kind of blip on the paper. Terry

I have my reservations for this one plus I'll be attending a workshop on the Griffith's Valuation presented by John Grenham, famous for his book, Tracing His Irish Ancestors. Brian Mitchell will also be a presenter.

He has some great books, including, A New Genealogy Atlas of Ireland and A Guide to Irish Parish Registers. All three books are great Irish genealogical resources. If you think you might be interested in this conference, check hotel reservations now, because they are being booked fairly fast.

- > It is interesting that your Cummyskys were in Worcester. When researching the Candlins in Worcester through census, I believe I found Cummyskys living near the Candlins. I thought that could have been the reason why they chose Worcester.

As I said in my email, I am not a believer of coincidents. If your Cummyskys were in Worcester, and so were my Flynns, one who married a Cummysky, it might be an interesting connection. Thanks for the Virginia, County Cavan lesson. Like I said, I have never done any research in County Cavan and when I saw Virginia, I thought of the USA. However, I have now gone to a map and have found the townland.

PS I will be in Ireland in September and will be at the GRO office and the PRONI office. If anyone wants to obtain a bmd certificate from one of these offices, contact me off list. However, you must have definite names and dates. FYI, the GRO office has certificates for all of Ireland until 1922, after that date certs for Northern Ireland come from PRONI.

Buckley and Lanigans in Troy, New York.

I have been able to trace my family from Fethard, County Tipperary to Troy, New York. Both families immigrated from Ireland in 1847.

Three Buckley children married three Lanigan children.

Several of the adult children died in Troy: Timothy - 1853, Patrick - 1847, William - c. 1859, and Dennis - 1911. Others (John, Richard, Bridget Lanigan Buckley and Honora Buckley Lanigan) migrated to Pittsburgh, Allegheny, PA 1860-1870. Next generation were in Chicago, Kenosha, WI

Timothy Lanigan was one of the victims on the infamous "Veiled Murderess" in 1853

The only three I have are Mary Bridget Fitzgerald dau of Patrick and Alice (?) Fitzgerald. Bridget as Mary was called in our family married Richard Walsh about 1865. I do not know if Patrick and Alice came to the U.S.

Oliver Browne est. b. 1770, Diocese of Cashel & Emly married 1795/96 to (Mary) Sarah Grant. They had at least 4 sons; I've found 2: John Browne b. 1798 and Cooper Crawford Browne b. 1 Apr 1804.

Cooper married 1826 to Deborah Owens in Tipperary. Their living children: Eliza Jane, Mary, Charles Broderick, and possibly Richard D. Cooper took Deborah, Mary and Charles to NY in 1852. Eliza Jane was already in NY at that time; possibly John (Cooper's older brother) and possibly Richard, too.

Mary married Charles Sullivan Davis about 1854, and raised their children in Troy/Green Island area.

One daughter, Mary Ellen b. 1862, married 14 Sep 1881 to George Edgar Gardner b. 1858. They had 6 living children all born in Green Island: Edgar Alvin, Elizabeth Susan, Achibald Winfield, Blanche (Mittie), Ethel May, Charles Waldo, Mary Ruth, Elsie Grace, and Margaret Davis.

Elsie, b. 1899 married 26 Nov 1919 to Ralph Emerson Saner b. 1887 in Powhatan Point, OH. They probably met when Ralph was in the Army, stationed at Watervleit Arsenal, NY. Ralph took Elsie back to his home town where they had two children: Donald Emerson Saner and Miriam Saner. After Ralph's death, abt. 1930/32, Elsie returned to NY with Donald and Miriam. From 1934-1970's, they are in Troy, many years at 112th St.

Elsie joined her sister Blanche in the 1940's running a dance studio. Blanche was the business manager; Elsie taught ballroom dancing. I believe the studio's name was La Salle or La Sahn. When Miriam became older, she taught ballet, tap, and later, baton. She took her baton students to participate in many parades throughout the state.

Donald married Joyce, an Australian war bride; they traveled as Don remained in the US Navy until 1967.

Miriam married James Foley around 1950, and lived in Troy until abt. 1970 when she moved to Arizona with her daughter, Nadene.

I would love to hear from anyone who has any knowledge of my family either in the past or more recent. Please contact elwewo1@gmail.com
Thanks, Donna (Saner) Wilson

You must be confusing TIARA with another website. TIARA is a group of people based in the Boston area that share an interest in Irish genealogy. (much like TIGS). There are ongoing projects contributed to by volunteers. (much like TIGS) Membership is $20/yr for those who wish to join but all the information on the website is free.

Patrick was born in Schuylerville, NY in 1871. He was one of nine children of my Great Grandparents, Patrick and Margaret (Storan) Fean.

If anyone has any information on any of these children it would be so helpful to me in my family research. Thank you.

Miriam Saner is a name I have not heard in about 60 years. My brother Jack and I took ballroom dance lessons from her mother and Miriam was there many times. She was my date for a dance in my freshman year in LaSalle. That was pretty nifty to have a dance partner who was the best on the floor.

My brother met Mary Alice Ryan there and they produced seven kids. I visited Mary Alice in June at her home in Chelmsford Mass.

Thank you Kris for the memory jogger.

Mike I have nothing on the Martin's to date. It was chance that I was browsing through a book at the Troy Public Library, the transcriptions for St. Patricks Church done by the American Canadian Genealogy Society. I found the marriage record for Mary Cooney and her parents were listed as Michael (Cooney) and Margaret Martin. I traced that and found that Mary was a daughter I was trying to find BUT more important it was the first record I found of Margaret's maiden name. I will keep you posted though if I make a connection.

Trudy,

I'm also researching Canfields. My great grandmother, Eliza Hooley Wallingford, was the daughter of Edward Hooley and Bridget Canfield. Edward and Bridget who were probably from Cork immigrated to Green Island at the height of the famine in 1847 where Eliza was born in 1857. Eliza married Edward Wallingford at St. Joseph's in GI on September 2, 1883 where Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Canfield stood up for them. I believe that Edward and Bridget immigrated to GI because of the Hooley and Canfield relatives they had there. Patrick Canfield lived with them after they arrived. I have more information about the Hooleys and Canfields in GI. David

Buckley and Lanigans in Troy, New York.

I have been able to trace my family from Fethard, County Tipperary to Troy, New York. Both families immigrated from Ireland in 1847.

Three Buckley children married three Lanigan children.

Several of the adult Lanigan children died in Troy: Timothy - 1853, Patrick - 1847, William - c. 1859, and Dennis - 1911. Others (John, Richard, Bridget Lanigan Buckley and Honora Buckley Lanigan) migrated to Pittsburgh, Allegheny, PA 1860-1870. Next generation were in Chicago, Kenosha, WI

Timothy Lanigan was one of the victims on the infamous "Veiled Murderess" in 1853

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Both Kris Cooney-Ayotte and my cousin, Mike Rainey, have recently been discussing the Martin surname.

The Martin name also enters my McGrath-O'Connor line with the marriage of Thomas J. Martin to Mary E. McCormick, a first cousin, three times removed.

Mary was the daughter of Catherine Markey and Matthew McCormick. Thomas and Mary had no children.

Thomas was a retired Captain in the Troy Fire Department. He was first appointed on February 15, 1912 and retired February 26, 1944 after 32 years of service. He died in Troy on September 25, 1949.

I don't have his date of birth, but Mary was born in 1871, so I would assume Thomas was born around that time period.

The obit notice in the Troy Times Record say that he was born in Troy, the son of the late James and Mary A. Martin.

Jeanne,

I would be interested in the information about the Gallagher's in Troy and Rutland. My g-great uncle, Patrick Carey, was married to a Bridget Gallagher in Troy in 1854. Shortly thereafter, they moved to Rutland VT where their first three children were born. I don't know for certain where Bridget Gallagher was from.

Thanks,
Lynn

Hello David,

Thanks for your reply to my Feehan/Canfield query.

I know very little about the Canfields in my genealogy. My Great Uncle, Patrick Feehan, married Mary 'Mae' Canfield. Her parents were Peter A., and Ellen (Mahoney) Canfield. Both were born in the USA. (this information was shown on Patrick and Mae's certificate of marriage)

I 'assumed' that Peter and Ellen were residents of Troy for some time, since 'Mae' was only 22 when she married Patrick.

Sorry I couldn't give you more info about the Canfields. You could probably contact the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office in Troy where there might be more vital statistic information on your Canfields.

Good Luck!

Trudy

We can't help you yet BUT maybe if we keep digging together. It appears there were several large Martin families in Troy. If you go to Pat Conners site and check the census records there you will find some of them.

I have been on Ancestry but have had no luck yet. I am looking for Margaret born about 1864-65, married Michael Cooney and appears as his wife in 1880.

I have yet to pin her down as there are a few Margarets that could be her.

My husband's great grandfather was John H. Martin, said to be son of James and Mary Martin. He was born 8 Oct. 1863 in Troy or Cohoes. He came to Seattle by 1907. He married Anna Margaret Wachtel from Greenbush or Poestenkill area in about 1903. I am having a problem with identifying his parents for sure. There are several families with sons of same age and name and a Catherine that appears to be an earlier wife of James. Would be glad to exchange what information I have to try to clarify some of the Martins.

Hello, Brian,

If John H. Martin married in Greenbush or Poestenkill about 1903, there is a good chance that marriage certificate would be in the NYS Dept of Health vital records. The names of parents of both parties ought to be on the certificates.

Let me know if you want more information about working with those records.
