Kitty,

The Troy AOH is Division #8 Ancient Order of Hibernians, a nationwide organization, although Division #8 is only in Troy. It is an Irish Catholic fraternal order which was created from its Irish predecessors in Ireland in the 1840s when there were anti catholic, anti Irish problems in America and they had to protect the churches and clergy from the murderous and vandalous attacks of american protestant groups such as the "Know-Nothing" party which was politically connected in the pre Civil War era and killed clergy and burnt churches particularly in New York City and Philadelphia. An entire Platoon of AOH members fought a battle against the Know Nothing mob to protect the original St Patricks Cathedral in NYC in the 1840s.

The last I knew Pete Durkee was living on Monroe Street in Troy and I heard he was elected to the City Council so I imagine if he's not in the phone book he could be contacted through city hall. Pete was a Polic Sergeant for many years and a court officer in Troy so he is well known in the city.

In Boston, a mob of Protestant workmen burned down a Catholic convent. Protestant mobs in Philadelphia rioted against Irish Catholics in 1844. The Irish in Philadelphia promptly gathered into mobs of their own and fought back, with the violence lasting over three days. Two Catholic churches were burned down along with hundreds of Irish homes and a dozen immigrants killed. In New York, Archbishop John Hughes, on hearing of the Philadelphia attacks, deployed armed Irishmen to protect his own churches. Then he paid a visit to New York's mayor and warned him that if just one Catholic church was touched, the Irish would burn all of Manhattan to the ground.

Mark and Janice,

You might try the failteromhat.com site if you haven't already. Scroll down to the Griffith's Valuation heading, click and when you get to the new window just type "Melvin" into the surname space and click again. It will give you Melvin names, townlands, and counties to help you get some idea of where you might focus a search. It can be a little overwhelming but it's something to check out. Have fun!

One of the facts I learned during a tour of the Burden Museum in Troy NY is that, in 1840, Troy was the 4th wealthiest city per capita in the United States. It would seem likely that news of Troy was printed in the newspapers of the other major cities in the mid-1800s.

Looking for any connection to the family of Thomas Dennin born 1890 and buried in Troy, NY 1922. Siblings were John, Fred and Neil Dennin, and sister, Mrs. John Hoar.

I am interested in knowing about his daughter Ruth Dennin who married Troy native Paul Post in 1943.

Thanks,

It was precisely because of the iron industry such as Burden's, plus other industry and manufacturing that drew the Irish to Troy and Cohoes. Here's a link to "Labor & Industry in Troy & Cohoes" which has some info. Just do a search on the word Irish etc. <http://www.albany.edu/history/Troy-Cohoes/>

It's the same reason that so many Irish were in Lowell, Worcester, and Fall River MA and Pawtucket, RI - in this case the textile industry. Irish were drawn to these growing industries throughout New England and NY. Here's another link: <http://www.blackstonedaily.com/People/bvpeople.htm> Do a text search for Irish.

The Irish also built Rail Roads and Canals throughout New England and NY (the growing transportation industry). Here's a link to the Irish in VT: http://www.flowofhistory.org/themes/movement_settlement/immigration.php

My family were actually Scots who went to Antrim sometime before 1830. They were Presbyterians, so that might be a whole other ball game from TIGS. People should really figure out the difference between Ireland and North Ireland. I spent a week in Belfast in May and loved it. I could look out our hotel room and see the hill where my ancestors lived in 1830. I wish we had rented a car and had a driver who knew some history drive us around. Maybe I'll go again, if I'm lucky.

Thank you Lizette,

Just a little more information for everyone I've been talking on other mailing lists and people have suggested that the marriage probably took place at Trinity Church which also burned down and likely the records would be lost due to that event. Also I don't know for how long Robert POLLEY and/or Mary Ann HACKETT were living in the area before they got married only that 3 years after their marriage they moved to Canada.

Robert POLLEY was born about 1801 in Kinlough and Mary Ann HACKETT was born 23 November 1810 in either Kinlough or Co. Monaghan (conflicting information).

Any help would be greatly appreciated!

Dear Listers,

I want to thank all of you very much for the advice you gave me. While I was in Troy last week, the City Directories told me just what you said they would....I was able to track my great grandparents and their residences throughout the 1890's. It also gave me a smaller window to find their year of emigration, which I have not found yet. It was a very successful trip family research wise....I kept running from the library to the City Hall to St. Joseph's Church to St. Joseph's Cemetery!

I was wondering if anyone has had luck finding those records through the Cohb Museum I read you all taking about...is it worth a try to see if they have ship records?

Thank you all again for your help!

If you google "Immigrant Ships List" you will find the Immigrant Ship Transcribers Guild as well as an Ancestry.com site for New York and other ports ships lists. It might help you.

There will be no general meeting of the Troy Irish Genealogy Society this month, October. In lieu of the meeting we invite all to attend; "Why Troy? Irish Immigration in the 19th Century" Special Photo Essay Presentation

by Jeanne M. Keefe
Visual Resource Librarian
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
To be held at the Rensselaer County Historical Society
57 Second Street
Troy, NY

On Wednesday, October 18th, at 6:30 PM

Our regular monthly meeting will be held in November on the 16th at 6:30 at a location to be announced.

We do hope some list members and friends or family can attend this presentation, Jeanne has put an excellent program together.

I read the article; wish I could attend. Would there be some more available through the site? I see Pittsburgh is mentioned as a rival city--I think my ggpa worked and lived there before settling in Troy as an iron worker. What would be the most likely port of entry for Irish to Pittsburgh in 1867?

Subject: [NY-TROY-IRISH-GENSOC] Marriage Index-Update 2

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

TIGS list members and Rensselaer County list members will be interested in this update on Volume II of the Rensselaer County Marriage Index Project. Volume I, with its 10,000 brides and grooms names is already on line on the TIGS website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

GROOMS NAMES:

The TIGS project to automate Volume II of the Rensselaer County Marriage Index is moving right along. There were 213 pdf files created for the 5,000 GROOMS names that were scanned on September 12, 2006. All 213 files were sent to the 27 volunteer transcribers working on this project.

These dedicated volunteers have been unbelievable in how fast they are completing the transcribing. Over 90% of the files have been completed and returned AND have been proofread by another transcriber. The last 25 files were sent to transcribers yesterday and today and they should be returned shortly.

Still to be done on the GROOMS names:

1. Resolve handwriting problems identified by transcribers and proofreaders by looking at the source documents in the Rensselaer County Clerk's Office.
2. Make a numerical file of the GROOMS records in order by marriage numbers 5001 to 10,000 to make sure there is a record for every marriage number in that series range.

BRIDES NAMES:

All 5,000 BRIDES names were scanned on Monday, October 2, 2006. Scanners were Kay Brearton, Jeanne Keefe and Bill McGrath.

As soon as pdf files of the scanned pages are made, the BRIDES files will be farmed out to those individuals who have volunteered to help with the transcription.

NEW VOLUNTEERS:

The more volunteers we have to work on the index, the quicker Volume II will be available on-line on the TIGS website. Anyone interested in working on this exciting project can send an email off list to: seamus@nycap.rr.com

Regards,

Bill McGrath

Very interesting article.....I'd love to know how some of my ancestors ended up in Troy. I've written to Jeanne before as my great great grandmother was a Keefe -- or O'Keefe -- but could not find a connection.

My most recent ancestor came to America in 1880 and the earliest I can trace was in 1825 but somehow I am of 100% Irish heritage. My generation is the first to marry to non 100% Irish descent! (My husband is almost 1/2 of Irish descent.) The other common denominator is that all of my Irish ancestors that came to the US lived in New York state cities (Brooklyn, Mahnattan, Syracuse, Troy and Long Beach Long Island). There must have been very close knit Irish communities in all of these cities.

This sort of thing is really a problem. My wife has a collateral ancestor who was committed to an insane asylum in 1896. My wife was interested in who had ordered the confinement, what disposition was made of her minor children, and if the woman was ever released. Turns out the records are private and can't be viewed. Never mind that anyone involved has been dead for more than fifty years.

Don't really know much about this type of thing, but if there was a family physician that could be traced. Doctors weren't as specialized back then, the family doctor did it all, no? Find him and you might find some records.
Just a guess.

Institutionalized people were recorded on census records so maybe look for her in 1900 as an "inmate" for the ward and city where the asylum was located. Of course, the census will not give the details you are seeking but may provide some more clues.

For what it may be of use to you, I had a simular problem in another state and about a decade later but found the commital report and a report back to the judge with details of his death, in the Probate Court files at the County where he was admitted. That fairly well cleaned up my questions, of course as always, it raised new ones.

I had -- have -- the same sort of problem with mental hospital records. In New York State, at least, there should have been a court hearing to commit the person; I was referred to the NYC Surrogate's Court, but no record was found. Individual hospitals have some records and are willing to share them with descendants, but some NY State hospitals will only share the information with doctors. My doctor wrote, but got no response. The NY State Archives have some old records from some of the state hospitals, and will summarize them. Check their catalog for the institution. If they have records, you still have to get permission from the actual hospital for them to divulge information. Some records include photographs and a record of who visited the patient. Mine didn't, of course.

To All,

I think we pretty much exhausted what was available. We did find the court order but it added little that we did not know. As I recall that search was started when the lady was found in a census record in a State Hospital in Oklahoma. The area where the family lived was once covered with small farms but all that is left now are empty cross roads where eighty years ago there were churches and sometimes a post office and store.

Hi Listers,

I like to welcome Holger Weber to the list. He is looking for descendants of an ancestor that lived in Troy on Locust Ave. in 1900. Below you will find information on his family research. I know it is not quite Irish genealogy, but I thought someone would be able to give him some help.

As always, any help is greatly appreciated.

my name is Holger and I'm searching for the descendants of the brothers of my great-great-grandfather Konrad Hammann, which emigrated from Vielbrunn, Germany, Hesse-Darmstadt to Amerika:

Johann Wilhelm Hammann (or William Hamman): He's born 1822-08-27 in Vielbrunn (Odenwald area, Hesse-Darmstadt) and left Germany 1850 at the age of 28 with his wife Maria Elisabetha (former surname was Berres, old years) and his one year old son Conrad (born in Vielbrunn, Odenwald area, Hesse-Darmstadt, 1849-04-06).The family arrived Newark (New Jersey) and were registred on 1850-09-28 in a list of free inhabitants with the number 577. Then I've lost them, without a trace.

Now I've received a cencus which stated that Conrad (the son of William) and his wife lived in Troy City (Rensselaer county), with his wife and his mother in law in 1900-06-12. (see file attached) Do you see any chance to clarify if the Conrad Hammann named with number 180/216 is the one I'm searching and what's happend with this family? Is there any chance to detect some descendants?

It would be a great pleasure for me, if anyone of you is able to give me some support...

Holger Weber

Mr. Weber I am in possession of some old city directories of Albany, New York. There are two Hammanns listed 1865, Conrad listed as a mason, 149 Central Avenue, and George Hammann also a mason, 179 Central Avenue. IN the 1888 city directory for Albany, Conrad, jr. brushmaker, house 231 Sherman. Also from 1888, Conrad, baker, 93 Lexington Avenue. George Hammann, mason, 221 Central Avenue and Henry, mason 144 Sherman. Don't know if this helps you, Albany had a large German immigrant population living in that part of Albany at the time. My mother's family emigrated from Hesse-Darmstad in the late 1830s to work as blacksmiths and steamfitters in Albany's south end.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Greetings,

Has anybody obtained a NYS birth certificate from the 1880's? I'm curious to find out if the mother's age is included in this record. I'm trying to nail down an ancestor's age. The couple of census that she participated in gives inconsistent ages. She had two children in the 1880's and I think that she herself would have provided reliable information. Before I spring for $22.00 I'd like to know if the information I seek will be there.

Looking forward to Wednesday evening.

Regards,
Peggy & Jack Seppi

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

I don't know about birth records but the verified transcript from the register of deaths includes:

NAME OF DECEASED
DATE OF DEATH
REGISTER NUMBER
AGE MARITAL STATUS
OCCUPATION
BIRTHPLACE
HOW LONG A RESIDENT HERE
HOW LONG A RESIDENT IN US (if foreign)
FATHER'S NAME & BIRTHPLACE
MOTHER'S NAME AND BIRTHPLACE
PLACE OF DEATH
CAUSE OF DEATH
CONTRIBUTING CAUSES
TIME FROM ATTACK TO DEATH
MEDICAL ATTENDANT
PLACE OF BURIAL

Greetings,

Has anybody obtained a NYS birth certificate from the 1880's? I'm curious to find out if the mother's age is included in this record. I'm trying to nail down an ancestor's age. The couple of census that she participated in gives inconsistent ages. She had two children in the 1880's and I think that she herself would have provided reliable information. Before I spring for $22.00 I'd like to know if the information I seek will be there.

Looking forward to Wednesday evening.

I've ordered death certificates through NYS and they seemed to take almost a year. I've ordered birth certificates from NY City which definitely included both mother's and father's ages.

Hi Listers,

I like to welcome Holger Weber to the list. He is looking for descendants of an ancestor that lived in Troy on Locust Ave. in 1900. Below you will find information on his family research. I know it is not quite Irish genealogy, but I thought someone would be able to give him some help.

As always, any help is greatly appreciated.

years) and his one year old son Conrad (born in Vielbrunn, Odenwald area, Hesse-Darmstadt, 1849-04-06).The family arrived Newark (New Jersey) and were registred on 1850-09-28 in a list of free inhabitans with the number 577. Then I've lost them, without a trace.

Now I've received a cencus which stated that Conrad (the son of William) and his wife lived in Troy City (Rensselaer county), with his wife and his mother in law in 1900-06-12. (see file attached) Do you see any chance to clarify if the Conrad Hammann named with number 180/216 is the one I'm searching and what's happend with this family? Is there any chance to detect some descendants?

It would be a great pleasure for me, if anyone of you is able to give me some support...

The only way you ever can be sure of the right age for someone in the 19th century is if you can get a baptismal certificate or some other record at the time of birth. My great grandmother sliced a year or two with every census and her obituary had her 7 years younger than she actually was when I got into the census data.

The information on a death certificate is only as reliable as the informant, whomever that might have been.

I've gotten death certificates from the 1890's and they include similar info to the birth certificate. I sent the request direct to Troy City Hall and got the notarized copies of death certificates within one week. It costs $22.00 but was well worth it. I found out the name of my great grandfather's father and mother and where my great grandfather was buried. I believe it listed the home address at time of death. Do not deal with the New York State Vital Records Bureau. I have heard of no one who got anything back within one half a year though I'm told if you drop the request off at their office you may get it back in two weeks---I would not count on it.

The Troy City Hall and the Troy Library are by far better sources and more cooperative than most.

Good luck,

Mike

I have found that family members had used different names than what they were actually baptised with (i.e. my grandmother had always been known as Marie but her real name was Mary, my g.aunt is known as Teresa but is actually Anna Teresa). I found this info on the baptismal records.

I have finally narrowed the search for my relatives to the part of Ireland where I believe my family lived and then emigrated from to the United States in the late 1830s. Now I need help in the way researchers on the other side for baptismal and marriage records. The locale in Ireland I need information from is, County Tipperary, Parish Bourney and Corbally, residence: Borrisnoe. Is there anyone out there with any good advice or experience in the way of researchers, who have been down this road ? Please advise. Thank you, Respectfully,

Mike,

This sounds more promising than dealing with the state. How much info did you have to give the folks at city hall? I realize more is better usually.

Did you need exact dates of death or were they able to retrieve info with just "ballpark" dates?

Thanks

I have had some experience with both state and village records. Those of us from out of the area are not always certain of the exact geography involved. For example, it has been my experience that a person may have lived just outside a certain village's jurisdiction but had most of the family in the local area. We may miss some important records by not going through the state system. On the otherhand, I spent considerable money for certificates at both local and state offices and found very little, even though the persons lived and died in the area during the time records should have been kept. Perhaps the records didn't exist, but I'll always wonder how hard the staff looked for the record. I've had better success with church records than with civil records. The records were from the 1880s and 1890s.

Hi Tim!

I'm Jim Denny(Dennehy) from Tucson, AZ. My g-grandfather, James Denny, from Lismoynan Townland, Co. Tipperary, raised his family at 2715/2717 Fifth Ave. in Troy after arriving in the USA May 1851. I had great success finding the Dennys through the Tipperary Family History Research (TFHR) of the Archdiocese of Cashel & Emly.

There are three diocesan family research centers for Co. Tipperary. Waterford Diocese covers the bottom third, Killaloe Diocese (Co. Clare) covers the top third and Cashel & Emly the middle. I do not see your parishes of Bourney and Corbally on the Cashel & Emly parish list, so they must be in one of the other two dioceses. Here is what I suggest. I have personal acquaintances at TFHR - Charlott Crowe and Nonie Ryan - who would help you make contact with the right diocesan research center. E-mail Charlott/Nonie at tfhr@tipperary-excel.com and ask for guidance, using my name.

Let me know how you make out...Good Luck!

Jim

When asking for genealogical information from any locality in NY State, you need to fill out a form called "General Information and Application for Genealogical Services."

On the back it has the following fee schedule:

1-3 years $22
4-10 years $42
11-20 years $62
21-30 years $82
31-40 years $102
41-50 years $122
51-60 years $142
61-70 years $162

As you can see, the narrower the search the less expensive. I have been able to get most searches down to within a year before asking for data.

More precision in your request speeds response time with the city clerk having to search fewer records.

Living in California I have had to send a long list of requests to my hometown of Oswego. Checks are made payable to the City (or Town) Clerk of the locality. While they can search the records at any time, they cannot release the data until the check has cleared. I usually send five requests at a time and can expect to see the results in three to four weeks. Walk-in requests with cash have resulted in results in less than five minutes.

Most of the death certificates for my immigrant ancestors gave approximate dates of birth and "Ireland" or "Germany" as birthplaces (good luck tracking them down.) However, I lucked out when my g grandfather's sister died as an adult before the parents died. On her death certificate (and none of the other five children) the actual villages of the parent's birth (Limerick and Mearth) were listed.

On the aforementioned death certificate her birth date was listed as May 7, 1849 but when I got a hold of the baptismal record of the Catholic Mission of Kingston Ontario where she was baptized, I found out that she was born on May 5, 1849 and baptized on May 7! Ain't it fun?!

Age was not particularly important to these folks, and many of them being illiterate had to rely on family and later on their own faulty memories because they kept no written records themselves. Without Social Security, driver's licenses, drinking laws, or restrictions on marriage age (how many of us have ancestors who married at 16 or thereabouts), age was not socially important. Furthermore, being desititute and Catholic, they didn't have a family bible.

Hope this helps.

Tim,

Eight or so years ago, I got baptism records from:

Tipperary Heritage Unit
The Bridfewell, St. Martin Street
Tipperary Town, Ireland
thu@iol.ie (mailto:thu@iol.ie)
Web site: iol.ie/~thu

They provided baptism records dating back to 1816 for my Lanigan, Maher and Buckley ancestors who lived in Fethard, County Tipperary. The information included names of both parents, address (townland), date of baptism (not date of birth), sponsors. There are two Heritage Units in County Tipperary, but you could start there. Good luck with your search.

They provided baptism records dating back to 1816 for my Lanigan, Maher and Buckley ancestors who lived in Fethard, County Tipperary. The information included names of both parents, address (townland), date of baptism (not date of birth), sponsors. There are two Heritage Units in County Tipperary, but you could start there. Good luck with your search.

My cousin Raymond MAHER, born 1901, was a piano player who could not find work in show business beginning in the late teens. He was told to "turn the H upside down," changing his name to MAYER and the work would come to him. He did that and became Ray MAYER who teamed up with Edith EVANS. They successfully played Vaudeville, and he appeared in 45 movies, was in at least 6 Broadway plays, they had a radio show, and so on and so on.

Not much doubt about that. My Reilly ancestors were quite successful business men and real estate owners in Manhattan and Brooklyn. My great grandfather moved out to Long Island and with his brother owned a considerable amount of property in Lawrence and Cedarhurst. They also were founding members of the Cedarhurst Jockey Club which staged regular racing events. The story is told that at a party Bernard was introduced to a woman from one of the "old" families as Mr. Bernard Reilly. She backed off and said, "Oh! Really?!" He immediately replied, "No, Ma'am. O'Reilly." He did not actually use that form but his brother William did his entire life. I suspect some sociologist could do a dissertation on the unshakeable allegiance to the Catholic Church of most immigrants from the 1840's on. It seems very much like the devotion of many blacks to their churches. It was the only way to get an education and provided leadership opportunities for the ambitious. The point is if you had a little money, or had made, some you were quite easily accepted. The funny part is a generation later Jewish performers such as Joseph Yul, Jr., adopted Irish names such as Mickey Rooney. There were many others, Kirk Douglas comes to mind. I liked the Marine Corps view of the problem. No one cares what color you are or where you go to church as long as you are Marine green and profess your belief in the Corps.

I too have found the Troy City Hall very helpful and cooperative. When applying for my dual citizenship in Ireland, I had to have the long form of birth /death certificates, and you have to ask for that specifically or you will get the short form. The long form contains more info. The $22 is worth it.

Tom,

Thank you very much. I'm sure your info will help a lot of other folks too. I have had good luck with church records and they are happy with a $10.00 donation! Thanks again

Subject: [NY-TROY-IRISH-GENSOC] Dual Citizenship

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Jeanne:

Did you get your dual citizenship? I did last year. I actually got it through a great grandparent....only one of my 8 great grandparents was born in Ireland but there was a loop-hole that I fell into because my father had filed in 1978 which was after the 1956 citizenship act and before 1986.

Usually you have to be a grandchild. Somehow while my ancestry is distant I am of 100% Irish descent.....all NY Irish Catholic.

I also had to apply for the long form with all of the information of my parents' marriage in Brooklyn NY....it took a long, long time.....but finally arrived.

I am, of course, 100% US American --- but I applied for dual citizenship to honor my father (who died in 1980) and was very proud and quite smitten with his Irish heritage....as am I. Part of my being somehow remains connected to all of my Irish ancestors.

The documentation required for dual citizenship is quite involved but.....not impossible to gather.

George, 12/30/51-3/16/52
Mary Frances, 9/20/53-6/3/55
Thomas, 11/13/55-11/13/1937 Married Helen Doubleday, perhaps 1895
b. 1871 in Binghamton d. 11/4/49

Helen Loretta, 1899-1988
Edward Thomas, 3/25/1901-7/75 Married Catherine Marian Tholl, b. 9/1/1901-11/8/75 in 8/31/1938

Nancy Ann, b. 11/17/42 Married Michael Alvin Charnee, b. 1/17/37
On 6/1/68
Alexis Catherine, b. 11/10/73

Anne Elizabeth, 8/27/57-10/21/72

James, 10/21/59-1/4/72

Mary, 2/18/62-3/29/96

Margaret (Maggie), 1864

Married Shields (see separate sheet)

Alice, 1868-10/16/36

Married Williams

Anna, 1875-2/08

Agnes, 1877-8/30/13

Married Elster in 1909

Edward, 1879-3/10/01

ALSO BURIED IN St. Peters Sara Hymes 4/4/28

Edward Martin sailed from Newcross, Ire. 4/6/1844 and arrived Quebec 5/17/44. Came to the U.S. 8/12/44. Fort Ann, NY. Was definitely in Troy in 1852. He became a fireman with Engine Co. #8, and in 1870 foreman for L. Horan at Kirks? & Wolf Foundry at the end of Long Bridge. They lived with Thomas and Catherine at 144 North 3rd Street (1860 and 1880 censuses). Thomas left from Liverpool, arrived in 1850, Lived in Fort Ann, moved to Troy 1/11/1854. Martin, but not Jeremiah (Jerry) is mentioned in the diary, but I remember Helen talking about Uncle Jerry. All listed their occupation as iron moulder.

Helen Doubleday was born in Binghamton to Robert (b. 1837) and Eloise C. Doubleday (b. 1841). She had a sister, Jane, two years younger. The parents were born in New York State (see 1880 census).

Thomas and Helen (Nellie) bought the house at 2328 6th Avenue in 4/03 (probably from mother Anna). They were living at that address with Anna from about 1881, according to the city directories. This house was demolished for a new roadway in the 1980s. They bought Bloss Cottage at the third Burden Lake in 9/08 (house directly before 2nd dyke on main road). This house is still standing. His sister, Alice (Allie) Williams owned a cottage on the second Burden Lake, as did the Shields family. He first worked for Steven Bulman from 6/13/1870. In 1878 he was working at Bussey's for less than $1 a day. He was in the cigar business with Charles Elkenburgh at 18 King Street starting 4/14/1894.

Edward O'Connor met Catherine Tholl at the summer home of May and Joe Stapf on the third Burden Lake. The Stapfs were neighbors of the Tholls in Albany, and often hosted them.

Starting with Thomas F., many are buried in the same plot in St. Peter's Cemetery, Oakwood Avenue, Troy. Jeremiah O'Connor is buried at St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Please forward this to Nancy Charnee,

My mother's name was O'Connor though I don't think there is a relationship via the O'Connors of Waterford. However, on my father's side Raymond Rainey I've traced our Rianey heritage through Troy from 1837 to the present though present Rainey's in Troy are probably third cousins or so.

In the 1850's and 1860's there is a church record of a Jeremiah O'Connor being godfather to several Raineys (primarily a John Rainey (1800 -1868 and his son John (1828-1892). Also, a John Rainey, Mary Rainey and Patrick rainey served as godparents to some of Jeremiah O'Connors children. It is all in the St Joseph Church record which I'll be glad to send you if you think this is a match. I have not checked too much out about Jeremiah O'Connor but it appears he was very close to several of my ancestors. I believe his wife was Ann O'Connor and they lived in Troy at least in the 1850 and 1860's.

John Rainey (1800-1868) was my great great grandfather.

Please advise if you think there is a match and we can exchange more info.

Take care,

Mike

Jeanne,

I see you applied for dual citizenship in Ireland. What do you have to do to qualify? Both my great great grandfathers were born in Ireland and married Irish women. Is there a direct relationship or time period since they left Ireland that must be met?

I've thought about this and your note spurred me to ask how to do it.

Thanks,

Mike Rainey

Mike:

I received dual citizenship through a great grandparent but usually you cannot apply through a great grandparent. It is limited to grandchildren except in certain cases such as mine in which my father had applied through his grandfather after the Irish Citizenship Act in 1956 and before 1986. I don't think there is any possibility of receiving dual citizenship through a great great grandfather.

Just curious - - - What is the benefit of dual citizenship and why would you do this? I am only familiar with dual citizenship in cases where a child of an american citizen was born in another country.

seeking knowledge,
Pam

My reasons were mostly sentimental. My father died when I was 20. He had applied for dual citizenship in 1978, visited Ireland in 1979 and then he died in 1980. He was very proud to be of Irish descent and instilled the same pride in all of us. He had started genealogical research --so I had a big head start. I started my research in 2003 and I've learned so much about my ancestors. My fathers' ancestors were very accomplished and very well educated. Even his mother earned a bachelor's degree in 1920. I always associate being Irish with being smart and interesting and ignore any other negative stereotypes!!

Anyway there are reasons for acquiring dual citizenship other than sentimental ones. Supposedly you can get a European Union passport which would allow you to work and buy property in Ireland. The Irish Economy -- the Celtic Tiger -- has been moving forward for many years. The unemployment rate is extraordinarily low, education and health care are available to all.....of course the real estate is very expensive now. Anyway I have no real plans to move to Ireland....but with dual citizenship I suppose I could someday!

Death certificates can be obtained from NYS in about 2 weeks, IF the form is filled out locally at the NYS Archives (on 11th Fl.) and dropped in the box there, along with the check for $22. You need to fill out the information that is from the microfiche collection on the 11th Fl. It also helps to include the certificate #, which also speeds up the process.

If you are not local, you need to find someone who can do this process for you. Otherwise, it can take many months to receive the vital records certificates.

Hello Pam,

I was married to an Englishman and our eldest daughter was born in London. As far as I know, you can request English citizenship IF your father or grand father were born in England (I am not sure about the mother or grand mother). I don't think you can go further back. One of the advantages for young people is that they can more easily work in the countries member of the EU.

Michael,

I would suggest going to a site for English or Irish citizenship, or calling your nearest Consulate or Embassy for these countries. Good luck,

The Citizenship act changed recently to tighten down the rules to get Irish Citizenship but I don't know if there were any changes to getting Irish Citizenship by descent.

Recently two new subscribers to our list had O'Connor ancestors. I have collected much info on the surname for Troy, including state censuses, cemetery, naturalization, passenger etc. records. However, I am on an extended trip and won't get home until the middle of November. If you write me off list at that time when I am home, I will happily check my records and see if I can find you new info on your families.

May I say without offending anyone; American citizenship is fine and dandy and enough for me :-) but -- to each his own.

I was thinking that also- last year, after 2 weeks in Ireland, even though we had a great time, there was nothing like tiredly walking off the plane into O'Hare and seeing a HUGE Stars and Stripes on the wall to let you know you were safely HOME. I was asked by a friend's father to do some research for his citizenship intentions, and was curious as to what the particulars were.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Tonight the Rensselaer Co. Historical Society hosted our Troy Irish Genealogy Society's presentation by our very own webmaster, Jeanne Keefe, on "Why Troy? Irish Immigration during the 19th Century." It was a rousing success! Are you ready for this? There were a reported 175 people there!

Jeanne's talk was fantastic, and was accompanied by her visual presentation, chock full of wonderful old pictures of Troy and surrounding areas. People seemed to really enjoy it, as evidenced by their lively comments and the fact that even though there was standing room only, people still stayed to hear the entire presentation.

Many thanks to Jeanne, and to all who worked on making this event happen.

Yes.

My sister is helping her husband get his Italian citizenship.

In that case, it is my understanding, if you can prove your paternal line back to Italy from any generation, you're in.

I saw this on another mailing list and took a look at it. Is anyone familiar with this? (genealogybank.com). You can try it out and search for free, but there is a membership fee if you want to see the entire article. It indicates $19.95 a month, but I don't know how many months you may need to sign up for. Take a look at its listings on the home page: obituaries, historical newspapers, military records, books, etc.

I AM NOT PROMOTING THIS IN ANY WAY, I do not know anything about this--just informing you of its existence and asking if anyone has tried it out. Here's the link:

<http://www.genealogybank.com/gbnk/keyword.html>

And here's a write-up I found on it:

Hi Donna,

I never made it into the meeting! I had five guests with me. We arrived a little before 6:30, parking was difficult. We were disappointed we missed the presentation.

Many people were leaving and standing around outside and on the steps. I think there must have been between 30 or 50 people who left while we stood there. I spoke to several Trojans who were to were disappointed, and expressed the desire of a repeat performance. I gave them the "TIGS" website, and encouraged them to look us up.

Whuda thunk!!!!!!

Hi Clair:

I'm very happy that so many people are interested in my presentation , but unfortunately due to numerous copyright issues, I am unable to post the talk to the web. It would be nice, but I used the photos under the Fair Use Clause for educational purposes as it was a free lecture, but many of the photos are not in the Public Domain so I cannot publish them to the web without paying steep fees or risk getting sued.

Thanks for asking though.

I agree. The topic is intriguing, but I'm in Minnesota and it was too far to drive for the evening.

Is there anyway to post Jeanne's talk and photos on the site? For all that you had 175 people, there are a lot of us at a distance who would have loved to be there too!

Eileen,

I have not received it yet....but all my info has been verified and according to the last letter they sent it should be done in 4-6 months. I had to go through the Chicago Irish Consulate as I live in the Midwest, and they tell you up front that Consulate takes longer than any other. I tried to go through Boston, where I am from originally but could not.

I too am very proud of my 100% Irish heritage, and since my Nana was born in Limerick (emigrated to Troy with her parents) I qualified. You are the first person I've heard of to qualify on your great grandparents....good for you!
My plan is to apply for an Irish passport as well.

Jeanne

Michael,

To apply of Irish citizenship by decent you must have had a grandparent born in Ireland and you must be able to prove that. Eileen is the first person I've heard of who was able to get it by a great grand parent. You can call the Irish Consulate in New York (if that is your state of residence) and they will send you an application to fill out and give you a list of the documents you must provide as well as the other requirements. It does take time and some of the forms cost a little more than usual because you are asking for the long form. I hope this helps Jeanne

Did anyone get the Troy Record newspaper on Monday? There was a big article about Jeanne's talk last night, (even lengthier than the one in the Times Union) and I missed the article. If anyone got it and can send me a copy, I'd greatly appreciate it. (It's not available on-line).

Thanks,
Donna

I don't recall if I posted this before, but here's the one from the Times Union. That one is online:

Jeanne:

I intend to apply for an Irish passport as well. I have the paperwork and it is on my mental "to-do" list. The reason I was able to get dual citizenship as a great grandchild is because my father applied prior to 1986. For those who applied prior to 1986 the effective date of the citizenship is the date of the Citizenship Act in 1956. Any children born after 1956 (I was born in 1959) are permitted to apply through the parent that applied.....if the parent applied prior to 1986. My father's grandfather was born in County Longford. He somehow met his wife Mary Langton from Troy and they were married in Troy but raised their family in Manhattan.

It did take a long time for the Irish Consulate to process the paperwork. I filed mine through NY.

Bill,

For my great grandfather I had found his date of death by going to the NY State Library. On the 11th floor they have a microfiche listing of all deaths, births and marriages from 1880 to 1955 (has to be 50 years before they will make info available to public. On the 7th floor there are Census records or especially for Troy they have the 1855 and 1865 State Census (actually they have them for most NY cities. In the Troy library they have the directory books themselves you can review. They list the employed person alphabetically (sometimes the spouse is listed--especially if the worker died in the past year.

So in one case I gave the exact date of death. In a few others I spoke to one of the clerks who was kind enough to search the records on my long distance call from Florida. She checked a few years and said there was no death of my great great grandfather in the 1880's decade. In a few other cases I got some info on deaths verbally over the phone. They were relatives but I didn't need a death certificate. Most of the calls were the usual "Please send in a request with $22.00 and we'll check our records and get back to you. You should try a few times by phone and maybe you'll get a friendly person to help you. Some will, some won't. However, they did always respond timely to written requests---a simple letter will do though use of the form is probably the best way to go. They will provide you with this form. Basically all you need to provide is the first and last name, estimated date of death/birth, etc. The State Vital Records has the same info but you need to know the document number (NY Library 11th floor provide this). You don't need it for the City Clerk. NY Vital Records will respond in two weeks to 9 months---don't waste your time there.

I made the calls to the City Clerk because I didn't know the names of all my relatives when I started and I didn't want to have to pay $22.00 for every Tom, Dick and Mary who were not direct line ancestors. However, once you isolate whom you want the death certificate for it is a great document, usually with names of both parents(including maiden name), spouses name, burial location, country of birth (it has a blank for the county but hardly ever if the county filled in. It usually has cause of death and length of illness; name of doctor and relative who provide info, etc.

Please call if you have any more questions. I found out so much info that earlier people had discovered that helped immensely. If you can get the naturalization papers---most immigrants usually filed those within a few years of arrival or when they went looking for a job. It is how we found out my Rainey ancestors came from County Cork. Nowhere else was it listed and no one seems to know. I'm going to look at a few others who were born in Ireland to see if their papers listed the town they came from.

Good luck

Mike

Another place to find the mid-decade censuses is in the County Records office of each county.

Hi Listers,

I like to welcome Jean Coffey Foss to the list. Below you will find her family research. As always, any help is greatly appreciated.

On one of the other lists I belong to the list administrator said the list had been real quiet so he posed this question, " If you could ask your ancestor one question what would it be". Now, I hate to steal someone else's gusto, but it did activate the list so.....
If I could ask Michael Cooney, my great grandfather, a question it would be who did you come with to the US? I first find you making your Declaration of Intent to become a citizen in Troy NY on 10/18/1868. You are a minor living in Greenbush having been born in Ireland. You are about 8 years old and you are with a group of other minors from Greenbush, are you an orphan.? If not why can I not find you in Troy again until you are married in 1880 with a family in 1900 and 1910. Where were you living before you were married, did you have parents here? Then in 1911 the City Directory says "you have left the city". Did you visit family in another city if so who were they and why did your wife not stay with them instead of coming back to Troy and showing up in the 1915 Troy City Directory as a widow?

Well maybe that was more than one question, but it boils down to before getting married did you have family here that you arrived with???

Great idea, Kris!

I would ask my great-great grandfather Jacob Michael Steinway (Steinweg), who came to Troy from Germany in the mid 1850's, if he is, as I suspect, one of THE piano Steinway's. My theory is that he came over with some of the other Steinway's; some stayed in NYC and started the piano company, and Jacob went upstate to Troy (I now know "Why Troy?" thanks to Jeanne Keefe's presentation!!). His Alien's Declaration indicates he migrated from the Port of Antwerp and landed in the City of New York on July 10, 1856, but I have been unable to locate him on any ship's register.

Kris6851-

In your recent note you referred to a "Declaration of Intent" to become a US citizen. Is there a record of such "declarations" around and where might I find them? My Great-grandparents are listed on the 1860 census as living in Troy and I would like to do more research on them.

Thank you
Don

Go to Pat Connors site and under the heading of NY you will find Troy.

Under Troy there are some transcribed records and an excellent explanation as to what the documents were.

If you don't have a date you can search the transcribed ones and if you can't find them there you can inquire as to what LDS film you would need.

This is where I found my ancestor, actually have yet to confirm 100% it is him, but everything else to date says it is.

TIGS list members and Rensselaer County list members will be interested in this update on Volume II of the Rensselaer County Marriage Index Project. Volume I, with its 10,000 brides and grooms names is already on line on the TIGS website: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nytigs/>

On September 13, 2006 the first of the 212 scanned Grooms files, covering 5,000 names, were sent to the volunteer transcribers. On October 10, 2006 the first of the 174 scanned Brides files, covering 5,000 names were sent to the volunteers. (Note: The Brides names were scanned on a bigger scanner which resulted in less files than for the Grooms.)

As of today, October 26, 2006, ALL 10,000 Brides and Grooms records have now been transcribed and proof read.

The 28 volunteers working on the Marriage Index Project have done a fantastic job in completing the work on Volume II of the Marriage Index in such a short period of time. As shown by the following listing, this dedicated group of volunteers came from all over the country:

- 1 - Tennessee
- 1 - Ohio
- 3 - Wynantskill, NY
- 1 - California
- 3 - Troy, NY
- 4 - Massachusetts
- 1 - Saratoga Springs NY
- 1 - Poughkeepsie, NY
- 2 - North Carolina
- 1 - Maryland
- 1 - Williamson, NY
- 1 - Washington, DC
- 1 - Pennsylvania
- 1 - New Paltz, NY
- 3 - Clifton Park, NY
- 2 - Albany, NY
- 1 - Washington

Before the data in Volume II is available on the TIGS website, the following steps have to be done.

1. A file of the GROOMS records, in order by marriage number 5001 to 10,000 is being created for review. File will be checked to make sure there is a marriage record, and only ONE record, for EACH number in the sequence 5001-10,000. Missing or duplicate marriage numbers will have to be resolved by looking at the Marriage Book itself (not the index). Page numbers will also be reviewed for obvious errors.

2. A file of the BRIDES records, in order by marriage number 5001 to 10,000 is being created for review. File will be checked to make sure there is a marriage record, and only ONE record, for EACH number in the sequence 5001-10,000. Missing or duplicate marriage numbers will have to be resolved by looking at the Marriage Book itself (not the index). Page numbers will also be reviewed for obvious errors.

3. Once the GROOMS and the BRIDES records are finalized, the two files will then be combined by the MARRIAGE NUMBER. The page number and the marriage date will then be reviewed to make sure that each COMBINED Groom and Bride record agree on these two items.

4. After all issues have been resolved with the data, and after a quality control check is made on sample records to ensure that the correct Groom and Brides names have been linked together, the data will be formatted in the same manner as Vol. I is on the TIGS website. Volume II will then be available on-line as a SEPARATE data base under the PROJECTS section of the TIGS website.

Hopefully, this tremendous data base of 10,000 names will be available sometime in December.

Bill McGrath

I am working on research pertaining to one of Troy's oldest carriage makers, WILLIAM LOWN. I have tracked him as early as 1861 and as late as 1885.

There is a funeral notice in the Burden Iron Company scrapbook - pg. 5-4.

Could someone check to see if this Wm Lown is the carriagemaker who used to do business at Broadway and Seventh.

If so, can I get a copy of the funeral notice/obituary?

(Purpose: Carriage maker research - and possible connections to Hart House (59 Second Street, Troy).

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

Dear Ones,

My GGGgrandfather, Cooper Crawford Browne, immigrated from Ireland to the US in 1852, probably Church of Ireland since the Browne's kept a family Bible.. He stated his occupation was a gold beater.

There after in each US Census, even up until he's in his 70's, he declares he is an "agent". Does anyone know what this means?

Shortly after immigrating, he is first seen in the Mechanicville area visiting his eldest daughter, Eliza Jane, who was (ahem) romantically involved with Richard Lightbown.

Then, it appears he goes to NYC for good, even though his 2nd daughter, Mary, marries a Troy man, Charles S. Davis, and sets up house in Troy.

Eliza will go to live with her at some point before 1860, and dies in 1862.

But back to my GGGgrandfather. I have copies of his hand writing (unless his words were transcribed).

I have just watched National Geographic's show on the "Real Gangs of New York."

Could "agent" have been another word for a member in an Irish gang?

Hope some one can give me a clue!

Donna

Hi..
Just a quick thought on the occupation noted as "agent". It could mean a person who represented a company, usually in a sales capacity. I'll check further with others who are more familiar with the vocabulary of the times. I've been told too, that the census takers who gathered information about the populace were not always very well educated, competent or consciencious, and that was possibly the case with some hired because of political connections. I've also heard traveling salesmen referred to as drummers but I think that was a slang term.
I've just joined TIGS and am researching the Coffey family as well as the Healys, Raffertys and Donnellys in Troy and Albany. Would be very grateful for any connections.

Jean, I am currently researching Morgan and Mary Margaret Coffey Hooley who emigrated to Troy in the late 1830s. At this point I do not know for sure if Mary had Coffey relatives in Troy at that period but will pass on to you any information I find I think might help you. I currently have a search in process going on in Ireland, Tipperary. Good Luck! Tim Hooley

In researching my CARROLL line in Troy, I found LAWRENCE J. CARROLL (1887-1946) a half brother to my grandmother, MARY ELIZABETH CARROLL O'CONNOR (1874-1960), listed in the Troy City Directory as a Commercial Traveler.

This threw me for a while until I surmised it may have been a fancy term for salesman. When I found Lawrence in the 1930 Census, he indeed was listed as a Commercial Salesman-Cigars.

Thank you again, for the info on Michael Coffey from Troy.....do you know the exact date of his death? I think that it was 1888 and I am going over to Troy tomorrow to do research at the library....would like to try to get his death certificate.

tomorrow, I will also zeroz a copy of my dad's wedding picture, and send it to you, along with the picture of Judge James V. Coffey which appeared in the Troy Record when he died. If I am not mistaken, you will see , a great resemblance , phiscally, between the two men.

Thanks again, for all you help. Mimi Coffey Nicotina

Hi, Mimi

Well glory be....James V. Coffey was my father's cousin! His father and my grandfather were brothers. My father was Joseph J. Coffey and he served on the Troy police force for many years. My uncles..Mike, John, Ed, William, and I believe one I never knew named James who died before I was born were also of course, cousins of James V. We used to have all the information about his untimely death and the newspaper coverage in a family scrapbook. Sadly, there is very little left of family historical artifacts, photos, etc. because they were destroyed many, many years ago by some unfortunate mischance. Then, to compound that misfortune, a trunk containing memorabilia, photos and such was lost when my mother moved from Troy to Poestenkill back in the 60s.

I will be reorganizing the materials I have in my possession and will be glad to share anything that might interest you. I've been absorbed in some musical and theatrical ventures and have not kept up with my search until I became aware of TIGS. Oh yes...my brother, Ed Coffey has what's left of the family papers and photos carefully preserved in several neatly kept albums, so he's a resource as well.

HI Jean;

would any of your Healys have spelled the name Haley? We are looking for Jeremiah Haley (Healy) born Ireland about 1830. He married Mary Eagen (Akin) they had two children in Tennessee--John in 1865 and Margaret Ella in 1867 and another child in South Dakota- Daisy Johannah Haley in 1876. A long shot but we have been looking a loooooong time.

There was a rumor they started in New York.

Categories: GENEALOGY TIGS

I'm posting this in case there are list members who are unaware of this free database:

<http://infowanted.bc.edu/>

This is quoted from their website: "From October 1831 through October 1921, the Boston Pilot newspaper printed a "Missing Friends" column with advertisements from people looking for "lost" friends and relatives who had emigrated from Ireland to the United States. This extraordinary collection of 31,711 records is available here as a searchable online database, which contains a text record for each ad that appeared in the Pilot."

It's not just for those who came directly to Boston. There are NYC ports of arrival there too. If you are lucky enough to find your ancestor there, the information in the entry MAY include county and parish in Ireland, which of course is the key to finding more. Check it out! It's a fun site and easy to navigate and search.

Dear Lois,

I haven't much information on the Healy line, but from what I've been able to construe from it, there was a great deal of confusion about the spelling of the name; Healy, Healey, Haley, Hawley, Hailey. I suppose that the first persons with names in this group having been born in Ireland, spoke with a brogue, and that could have contributed to the differing spellings arrived at by the census takers. I'm told that my great grandmother always spoke of a nice cup of tay, and when teased about her pronunciation, would become annoyed and remark "I can say tay as well as anybody else!"

My grandmother, Delia Healy died before I was born. She married Michael J. Coffey who was my grandfather. Delia's date of birth is subject to confusion, but her name shows up in the 1860 census as the child of Charles and Mary Healy who lived in Albany. Apparently they came to New York state before 1842, and there is a Charles Healy, occupation listed as cartman found in the 1847 and 1848 Albany City Directories. In 1860, a Charles Healy shows up as a brewer. In the census information available, children of the Healys are listed as Lawrence, Mary/Maria, Charles, Cornelius, Delia/Bedelia, Margaret and Francis. From the 1850 census onward, the family is listed as living in the 8th Ward, Albany. The address found in the 1880 census is 164 Orange St., Albany. The 1900 census lists Charles Healy, (one of the children of Charles and Mary), and wife Margaret E. Healy as residents of 248 Clinton St., Albany.

My grandmother, Delia was born around 1854-1855, and died in 1929.

I wonder if your Jeremiah Haley (Healy) might have been related to Charles Healy. If he was born in 1830 in Ireland he might have emigrated with family during the great exodus of the 1840s, and being of an adventuresome spirit, gone west to seek his fortune. I hope he found it.

Jean Coffey Foss

p.s. Do you know what county, town or city in Ireland was Jeremiah's home before he left for America?

Jean,

Today I spent most of my time at the Troy Public Library, researching Michael Coffey without any huge success. What I did find, was a picture of James W.Coffey, one of Troy's prominent citizens, also a brief biog. along with the picture. If you do not have this, I will be happy to send it to you. Do you have any idea when Michael Coffey died...I thought that it was 1888, but a Michael Coffey keeps appearing in the Troy Directory. I would like to get his death, and marriage certificates, but need his full date of death. Any help appreciated. Mimi Coffey Nicotina to construe from it, there was a great deal of confusion about the spelling of the name; Healy, Healey, Haley, Hawley, Hailey. I suppose that the first persons with names in this group having been born in Ireland, spoke with a brogue, and that could have contributed to the differing spellings arrived at by the census takers. I'm told that my great grandmother always spoke of a nice cup of tay, and when teased about her pronunciation, would become annoyed and remark "I can say tay as well as anybody else!"

> My grandmother, Delia Healy died before I was born. She married
> Michael

J. Coffey who was my grandfather. Delia's date of birth is subject to confusion, but her name shows up in the 1860 census as the child of Charles and Mary Healy who lived in Albany. Apparently they came to New York state before 1842, and there is a Charles Healy, occupation listed as cartman found in the 1847 and 1848 Albany City Directories. In 1860, a Charles Healy shows up as a brewer. In the census information available, children of the Healys are listed as Lawrence, Mary/Maria, Charles, Cornelius, Delia/Bedelia, Margaret and Francis. From the 1850 census onward, the family is listed as living in the 8th Ward, Albany. The address found in the 1880 census is 164 Orange St., Albany. The 1900 census lists Charles Healy, (one of the children of Charles and Mary), and wife Margaret E. Healy as residents of 248 Clinton St., Albany.

> Charles

Healy. If he was born in 1830 in Ireland he might have emigrated with family during the great exodus of the 1840s, and being of an adventuresome spirit, gone west to seek his fortune. I hope he found it.

This is for Harry Tegler. My name was Mickey McGaughnea. I went to school 12, but was friends with class of 56 in St. Joseph's. I remember your brother Paul. In fact, I found an old picture of the graduating class of St. Joseph's in 1956 on one of the links on the TGIS web site, I think it was on O'Connors. One of the listings was for St. Joseph's School. I am going to e-mail Judy Simpson and tell her after I send this. It sure brings back memories. Mickey Still reading over my current emails....My uncle, John A.Callahan also served on the Troy Police force from the 1930's through the early fifties.

An honor graduate , and scholarship receipient of La Salle, he rose in the police dept. to become Sergeant, and chief radio dispatcher. He retired in the late 1950's. Truly, it is, a small world. Mimi Coffey Nicotina

Mimi,

The first Michael Coffey in America was born in 1829 in Bird Hill or Nenagh, County Tipperary, Ireland. He emigrated to the U.S. either accompanied, preceded or followed by other family members. He married Sara Walsh on Jan. 18, 1852 and they had six children including a Michael, all of whom survived to adulthood. Michael Coffey, the father, died Feb. 3, 1888.

The birth date of Michael, his son is unknown, but the date of his death is Jan. 30, 1921. He was my grandfather and was the husband of Delia Healy Coffey. Their sons included my uncles James W., William A., Edward F., John F., Michael J. and my father, Joseph J. Coffey who was also a sergeant on the Troy Police Force like your uncle, Officer Callahan. The third Michael in this history was as mentioned above, my uncle. He was born Dec. 18, 1897 and died April 6, 1968.

That's quite a few Michaels to keep track of, and that's only the beginning of the confusion considering Sarah Walsh and Sara or Sarah Hayes who married different generations of Michael Coffeys. There were also Coffeys who married unrelated Coffeys. I'm wondering whether you might have any information on Alpheus Coffey and William Alpheus Coffey who were two different persons.

Thank you for the offer to send the photo related to James V. Coffey's funeral. I remember seeing that picture clipped from the newspaper in the family scrapbook years ago. I don't know for sure whether my brother still has it, so would appreciate your sending it.

Thanks so much for all that info...I am now going to contact Tipperary, and see if I can get some family info...my g.g.grandfather, James F. would have been born around 1815...I will focus on the Bird Hill area in Nenagh, and investigate what parish that would be. You are a big help. Mimi

Mimi- according to my family records, my grandfather, Samuel Russell, had a brother, William, who was born in Northern Ireland in January 1880. He was a laborer in Troy and married on May 1909 to Anna L. Helker. He later became a watchman in a collar factory. I would like to know if he had any descendants and if they still live in Troy.
