

John J. Evers.

John J. Evers.

JOHN J. EVERS was born in this city June 1, 1848. His parents were Michael Evers and Mary Gaffigan. All of Mr. Evers' life has been spent in this city. After attending the Christian Brothers' Academy he learned the molder's trade and worked for Fuller, Warren & Co. and G. W. Swett & Co. He was employed ten years at his trade. For three years he was employed by his brother, Thomas F. Evers, and for two years held a United States government clerkship. At present he is the assistant clerk of the Board of Water Commissioners. For a number of years Mr. Evers was a member of the Board of School Commissioners, and he acted as president of that body. He has served as corresponding representative of Iron Molders' Union, No. 2. He is a member of the Union, a member of Byron Council, C. B. L., and a member of the Americus Club. His wife was Miss Ellen Keating, and he has seven children, four boys and three girls.