

Daniel A. Healy.

Daniel A. Healy.

DANIEL A. HEALY was born in this city twenty-three years ago. He is the son of Martin Healy. After a thorough course in the public schools he determined to learn the druggist's business, and for several years he was in the employ of Joseph Donnelly, at the corner of Adams and Second Streets, acting as prescription clerk. He passed a brilliant examination as a pharmacist. August 1, 1887, Mr. Healy went into business for himself at No. 506 Second Street, and a few months ago, associated with his brother, John, he opened a branch establishment at No. 223 Fourth Street, under the firm name of J. J. Healy & Co. Daniel Healy has been collector of Iron Works Council, C. B. L., since its organization.
