

William Hutton, Jr.

William Hutton, Jr.

WILLIAM HUTTON, JR., was born in this city Sept. 1, 1863, his parents being William Hutton and Bridget McGowan. Mr. Hutton has always made his home in Troy. After graduating from the Christian Brothers' Academy he entered the employ of E. W. Millard, the undertaker, where he remained one year. Later he was in the employ of John McBride, but the past four years the subject of this sketch has been his father's book-keeper. Mr. Hutton is a member of the Y. M. C. L. A., Christian Brothers' Alumni and the Bache'ors' Club. He was married Nov. 28, 1888, to Miss Carrie, the accomplished daughter of William Kennedy, our much respected townsman.
