

Michael H. Keating.

Michael H. Keating.

MICHAEL H. KEATING was born March 31, 1860, in this city. He is the son of John Keating and Mary Nutley, and has always lived in Troy. He secured his education at the Sixth Ward Public School. For twelve years he was hydraulic engineer at the steel works. Mr. Keating was engaged for a year in the retail liquor business on River Street, but several months ago he retired from the trade. He represents the Sixth Ward in the Common Council, and is recognized as one of the ablest members of that body. Mr. Keating is young and energetic and his future is full of the ripest promise.
