William Henry Ryan.

WILLIAM H. RYAN was born in the city of New York March 9, 1856. His parents were Thomas and Margaret Ryan. When Mr. Ryan was four years of age his family removed to this city, and here he has remained ever since. He was educated in the public schools. For five years Mr. Ryan held a responsible position in the Troy Times office, and for ten years he was book-keeper for G. V. S. Quackenbush & Co., dry goods dealers. The past three years he has been book-keeper in the Troy Press office. He was manager of the paper when Edward Murphy, Jr., was in control of that property, and at the present time Mr. Ryan is vice-president and secretary of the Press Company. He is a thoroughly equipped newspaper man, and is one of the best accountants in the State.
